ACKNOWLEDGMENT

For the completion of this work, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, New Delhi, Jawahar Lal Nehru University Library, Marwari Library and All India Women's Conference Library, New Delhi were of great help to me in making available records and literature which I have used. I am deeply indebted to Dr. Shri Kishan, who gave me the idea of taking up this topic for study. He also gave me all help and guidance in full measures. But for him my efforts would not have been crowned with success. He went through every word of my work and it were his valuable suggestions that enabled me to give a cogent and rational treatment to the subject.
