ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am grateful to my supervisor, Dr. B.R. Aggarwal, who has been a source of continuous encouragement and help. He has been associated with this work right from its beginning stage to the final conclusion; but for his kind help, it would have been undone.

I am also thankful to the library staff of the Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, School of International Studies and the Documentation Centre of the Indian Council of Social Science Research for their kind cooperation in digging out the old material.

My thanks are also due to the Indian Council of Social Science Research for the generous grant that enabled me to visit these libraries.

The rich collection of the M.D. University Library also came to my rescue.

Errors and shortcomings are entirely my responsibility.
