The investigator owes a deep sense of gratitude to her supervisor, Dr. Hari Pal Dahiya, Reader, Deptt of Chemistry and to Professor Prem Paul Singh, whose genius and everlasting enthusiasm was and will ever be a source of deep inspiration for showing her light in the midst of confusion and encouraging her steadily for perseverance, inspiring her to be dedicated for ideas and thoughts. Towards them, the expression of investigator's gratitude will ever remain inadequate.

Likewise, the investigator expresses her gratitude to Professor K.S. Sharma, Head, Deptt. of Chemistry, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, for his constant encouragement and help in all matters - academic or administrative.

Investigator acknowledges her heartful thanks to the laboratory staff members for their cooperation during the research period.

Investigator is also thankful to Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak and Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, New Delhi, which offered her JRF and SRF, respectively.

And finally to her husband Dr. I.S. Solanki, she owes a great deal who motivated and encouraged her at every step to complete this piece of research in a short period of time.
