ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am grateful to my supervisor, Dr. S.R. Ahlawat who guided me in bringing out this study in time.

I am thankful to Prof. Y.S. Dahiya, Deptt. of Economics for his kind cooperation.

I express my thanks to Mrs. Navsharan, lecturer in the Deptt. of Economics for helping me in selecting this topic of research.

I must thank Mrs. Anita Garg of Computer Centre of the University for helping me in tabulation work.

My greatest debt of gratitude is to the industrial women labourers and officials of different industrial units of the three areas who generously and patiently gave their valuable time to me and made this work possible. The burden of typing was carried manfully by Mr. Sat Narain Kadian.
