I acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to all the people, who have helped me directly or indirectly in various ways, with patience and understanding. It is indeed a daunting task to acknowledge the assistance I have received from various people during the work.

At this ecstatic time of presenting this thesis, I find myself unable to elucidate. In words my, genial feelings of indebtedness and unfeigned gratefulness are to my esteemed teacher and guide, Dr. S. K. Bansal, Reader, Department of Geography, M.D. University, Rohtak for his constructive and ever available guidance, incessant inspiration and valuable suggestions at all the stages of this research. I find myself highly fortunate and gratefully privileged to have worked under his supervision. His enlightening storehouse of vast knowledge, farsightedness, eloquence and above all mastery over the subject inspired me throughout my way to complete this challenging task.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. (Prof.) S. H. Ansari, Head, Deptt. of Geography, for providing me all necessary facilities from the department as well as for his encouragement for better performance.

I am highly indebted to Dr. (Prof.) M.I. Hassan, Department of Geography for taking personal pain and providing valuable comments and precious time on an earlier draft of this study.

I am also thankful to other faculty members of the department including, Dr. (Mrs.) Nina Singh, Dr. (Mrs.) Binu Sangwan, Dr. Sachinder Singh and Dr. K.V. Chamar for their encouragement and suggestion given to me during my study period.

I am also thankful to Dr. Summi Sharma, Assistant Cartographer and all the members of non-teaching staff of the Department for their generous help extended directly and indirectly from time to time, related to their respective job pursuit.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. B.D. Choudhary, Head, Geophysics Department, Kurukshetra University (Kurukshetra), who solved every problem related to GIS techniques and softwares during my research work in the Lab. of Indian Institute of Remote Sensing, Dehradun.

I express my pleasure to Dr. Omvir Singh, Reader, Department of Geography, Kurukshetra University (Kurukshetra), for his valuable suggestions, advice, extensive comments at the initial stage of my research work.

I am also obliged to Mrs. Meenakshi Kumar, Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing Division, IIRS (Dehradun), for helping me in preparing the maps.

I am also indebted to Dr. B.D. Bharat, Human Settlement Analysis Division, IIRS (Dehradun), who gave me his precious time to deal with important techniques of Remote Sensing in the field of urban planning to my research work.

I am also thankful to Dr. B.K. Sharma, Superintending Engineer, Irrigation Department, Rewari, who helped me during the collection of data and other important information.

I am deeply obliged to the staff members of Town and Country Planning Office (Rohtak and Chandigarh), for providing useful information and data regarding my research work.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. S.S. Yadav, Head, Department of Geography, K.L.P. College (Rewari), and other staff members of the Department for their moral support during my research work.

I owe my sincere thanks to the staff of Central Library, M.D. University (Rohtak), Ratan Tata Library (New Delhi), Library of Indian Institute of Remote Sensing (Dehradun), School of Planning Library (New Delhi), Library of Kurukshetra University, who provided me access to valuable books, latest journals and related research materials.

I am especially beholden to my in-laws, my parents, especially my father Sh. Ram Kishan Sharma for their encouragement and blessings, which enabled me to complete my work. I am also indebted to my friends for their help and encouragement during the course of study.

I am specially thankful to my husband Mr. Raj Kumar Attri for his moral support and cooperation during my study.

Last but not the least, I am also thankful to Mr. Raj Kumar Pahwa M/S S.S. Computer Centre, for completion the typing works within the stipulated timeframe.
