ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
Give me the spirit of thankfulness, Lord
For numberless blessings given,
Blessings that daily come to me.
Like dewdrops falling from heaven.

No matter what accomplishments I have made, some body has helped me along the way. Without the help and support of many wonderful people this work would have remained only an idea.

My thanks are due —

To Dr. Selwyn Stanley - my guide, whose guidance and support enabled me see new insights in my research.

To the management of Holy Cross College for granting me the permission to pursue my research.

To the management of Bishop Heber College for providing a pleasant ambience to carry on my research in their institution.

To Dr.(Sr.) Maria Kamalam, Head of the Department of Rehabilitation Science for her encouragement and flexibility towards me and my work.

To Dr. Umesh Samuel, Reader in Social Work, Bishop Heber College, Trichy for help, clarifications and critical suggestions, any time, any where - wholeheartedly.

To Mr. Vijayan Kanagaraj Professor in Mathematics, Bishop Heber College, Trichy for dispelling the myth associated with statistics and making it more sensible to me.

To Dr. Penny Hauser - Cram, EdD, Professor, Boston College, School of Education, USA, for responding to my mail and sending me relevant re-prints related to my field of study.

To the institutional heads of various special schools in Trichy who gave me the privilege to undertake this research in their institution.

To the hundreds of parents of children with Mental Retardation, who gave me their time and effort and were willing to share their insight.

To Mr. Allwny - MS Infotech for providing the much needed meaning to the innumerable numbers with his meticulous statistical calculations.

To Mrs. Sheba Selwyn, Area Co-ordinator Trichy Child Line, for her joint involvement and helpful suggestions throughout my study.
To Ms. Mahalakshmi, Office Assistant - Department of Rehabilitation Science who personalized my thesis work as hers, while providing technical assistance and getting my manuscript typed.

To my colleagues - for the wonderful supportive enthusiasm and the "desire for more" which gave me the boost to continue my work.

To the vibrant band of my students who assisted me in data collection and shared constant eagerness in the proceedings of my work.

To my dear mom whose prayers, well wishes and constant enquires propelled me to completion.

To my husband for his shared belief in my goal, for his five years of patience and encouragement.

To Natalia and Nikita - my children, for their endurance and tolerating my absence from their life during my working hours.

To my dear dad for encouraging me to begin and prompting me to continue, but did not stay to see me finish!

I am indeed indebted to innumerable people in my life, who by way of enquiry and encouragement offered sincere support which enriched my experience and made my work more meaningful and effective than I imagined possible. Though they may not find mention in these pages there is still a special place in my heart.

(SHEILA CHRISTOPHER)