ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me a great pleasure to register my heartfelt thanks to all those who played an important role in shaping this research. My profound thanks to my research supervisor Dr. N. Subramani, M.Com., MBA., M.Phil., PGDCA, Ph.D., Reader in Commerce, Urumu Dhanalakshmi College, Tiruchirappalli for his supportive and facilitative guidance. I thank the doctoral committee members Dr. D. Sivasubramanian, Reader in Commerce, National College, Tiruchirappalli and Dr. A. Jalal, Reader in Commerce, Khadir Mohideen College, Adhirampattinam. I thank Dr. K. Sekar, the Principal, Urumu Dhanalakshmi College for enabling me to do my research in the college.

I thank my father who instilled in me the spirit of inquisitiveness and reflective thinking and my mother who sew the seeds of non conformity to anything that is not meaningful to me.

I thank Dr. L. J. Chaarlas, Reader in Commerce, St. Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli, for motivating me to take up this research. I like to place on record the support given by Dr. K. Alex, Reader in Commerce, St. Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli, at various stages of my research by spending time with me in designing questionnaire and offering important suggestions. I thank Dr. Shanmuga Vadivel, Reader, Department of Statistics, St. Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli for his support in statistical analysis.
I thank my friends who keep me alive to every moment of life and enjoy the joyful journey of learning: Fr. A. Packianathan, Mr. Britto, Fr. Jeyasingh, Fr. Sagayaraj, Fr. Victor, Fr. Philip Sudhakar, Fr. Xavier Arockiasamy and Prof. Xavier Arockiasamy.

The contribution of my wife, Ms. Sagaya Jenova and my kids Kavin Muhil and Kavin Fidel, by foregoing the joyful moments of being together so that I can continue my intellectual and professional pursuit is remarkable.

If at all I am able to complete my Thesis amidst quite a number of personal constraints, it is because of excellent support provided to me by Usha in typesetting and aligning and Praba, Kala who helped me in collecting resources from the web and feeding the data into SPSS package.
