ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to Dr. A. Ganesh, Senior Lecturer, School of Earth Sciences, Bharathidasan University for his consistent guidance and continued encouragement for the success of this scientific work. My profound and sincere thanks are due to Dr. S. M. Ramasamy, Professor and Head, School of Earth Sciences, for giving me constant encouragement. I also convey my thanks for all the help he has provided me in the use of the Photogrammetry Laboratory and Map Library for this work.

I convey my appreciation and thanks to Dr. V. A. Chandrasekar, Reader, Dr. K. Kumarasamy, Senior Lecturer, Dr. S. Aruchamy, Senior Lecturer and Dr. M. Manivel, Senior Lecturer in the School of Earth Sciences, for giving their constant encouragement, sincere help and counselling.

I thank the Principal, Government College (Men Autonomous), Kumbakonam and The Registrar, Bharathidasan University for extending to me the one-year FIP scheme to complete the thesis work. Also I thank the University Grants Commission for the FIP grant.

I place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr. T. Vasantha Kumaran, Professor, Department of Geography, University of Madras, for his critical assessment on methodological issues, consultation on the multivariate data analysis and decision-making processes. I thank him for his critical review during the final phase of the work. I convey my deep sense of gratitude to Nedina Kumaran and children for their kindness and help during the final stage of the work.
My special thanks to Dr. S. Subbiah, Professor, Department of Geography, University of Madras for his sincere advise on the methodology and techniques of analysis and cartographic appreciations. I thank Dr. N. Sivagnanam, Professor, Department of Geography, University of Madras for his discussion and exchange of views at every stage.

I express my sincere gratitude and thanks to the Director of Statistics, Madras; the Chief Engineer of Groundwater Division and Irrigation Division of the PWD, Madras; the Director of Soil Survey and Land Use Organisation, Coimbatore and the Regional Joint Directors of Statistics and PWD in the Amaravathy Basin.

I convey my sincere thanks to Shri. Gnanadandapani, my brother, who is the Assistant Director of Statistics, Madras for providing necessary statistical data. I also thank Shri. Murugesan, Gujiliamparai, A. Manivel, N. Panjampatti for their kind assistance while collecting secondary and primary data.

I thank Shri. P. Veerasamy, Record Clerk, PWD, Thanjavur, Shri. M. Rajendran, Statistical Inspector, Dindigul, Shri. Subbiyan, Health Assistant of Thadikombu for extending their assistance in collecting secondary and primary data.

My special thanks are due to Dr. P. H. Anand, Senior Lecturer, Department of Geography, Government College (Men-Autonomous) Kumbakonam for assisting me in the preparation of base maps and initial touches to the thematic maps and computer assistance in the form of data entry and analysis. I thank Shri. V. Kumarasamy, Lecturer (SG), Department of Geography, Government College (Men-Autonomous), Kumbakonam for all sorts of help extended to me, during the research work. I also thank all my other colleagues for their constant encouragement to complete the work successfully.

I acknowledge with a deep sense of gratitude my indebtedness to Prof. S. Radhakrishnan, Head of the Department of Geography, Periyar EVR College, Tiruchirappalli and his Department Colleagues for giving constant encouragement during every stage of this work.

My special thanks are due to Dr. R. Jayakumar, Research Associate, School of Earth Sciences, Bharathidasan University for his encouragement and timely help. I also thank my research colleagues Dr. S. Palanivel, Dr. R. Jaganathan, Shri. P. Saravanakumar, Shri. Edwin Moses for their help during the final finishing of the research work. Thanks are due also to Mrs and Mr. G. Rengaraju for their help during the tenure of my research.

My sincere and heartfelt thanks are due to the numerous farmers and officials who have patiently answered my 'million' questions and who have given their time during my fieldwork. There are other people who are indeed too numerous to name but I must thank, individually. My thanks go to them with my heartfelt gratitude.

I am thankful to my wife Smt. K. Indira, for providing constant and continuous support and encouragement in each and every phase of the work. I also convey my son Shri. K. Balathilak, for providing a calm atmosphere while preparing this work.
I place on record my profound thanks to my parents for their ambition and thoughts which shaped me what I am today.

I am most profoundly thankful to T. Lenin of Institute of Remote Sensing, Anna University for the design and neat reproduction of thematic maps and to Shri K. Govindarajan of Chepauk Computer Centre for keying in all data and also The Professional Touch, Madras for photocopying and binding.

I am grateful to my post-graduate students and more specifically Shri P. Prabu for typing the manuscript of the report and Shri. Purushothaman, Madras and Mr. P.K. Vijayan of Kerala for companionship during the final phase.

Tiruchirappalli
20.09.1995

I. C. KAMARAJ

xv