ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to the Bharathidasan University, Thiruchirappalli for having given me an opportunity to pursue the Ph.D. Programme.

I am very happy to acknowledge my deep sense of heartfelt thanks and profound gratitude to my Guide-Supervisor Dr. C.THIRUCHELVAM, M.Com., M.Phil., Ph.D., Associate Professor and Research Advisor, PG and Research Department of Commerce, H.H. The Rajah's College (Autonomous), Pudukkottai. I am very much bound and indebted to him for having enrolled me as one of his scholars and also for his keen interest in my work, valuable guidance, scholarly comments and fruitful suggestions offered without which this work would not have seen the light of day.

I find no words to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to all the Officials, Agents and the Policy Holders in the LIC Thanjavur Division, who helped me a lot by providing vital information required for the study.

I must thank my beloved friend Prof. S. NAVANEETHAM M.Sc., M.Phil., Associate Professor in English (Retd.) H.H. The Rajah's College, Pudukkottai for his help in bringing out this thesis in the present form and style.

My heartiest intellectual indebtedness is due to Dr. P. ASOKAN, M.Com., M.B.A., Ph.D., Principal, Bharathiar University Arts and Science College, Gudalur who goaded me in this venture and encouraged me at every step. My indebtedness is also due to the world of scholars and researchers from whose writing, I have benefited much.

My special thanks are due to my beloved Parents, my wife and my daughters who have been a constant source of inspiration throughout my study.

(M.VEERAPPAN)
