ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immense pleasure to express my heartfelt gratitude to my revered guide Dr. P. Malliga, Reader, Department of National Facility for Marine Cyanobacteria, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirapalli. I am profoundly indebted to her not only for her expedient guidance, but also for stimulating me with her excellent research methodology, pragmatic approach, unstinted dedication and above all, her warm personal concern throughout my work. Her patience, kindness, gracious and tireless enthusiasm at every stage of my work cannot be expressed in words. The integrity and sincerity to work which she inculcated in me will take me long way in my life.

It is a great privilege to be student of NFMC, Department of Microbiology headed by Dr. L. Uma. Her determination and painstaking efforts to make the department with necessary facilities are remarkable. Her moral advice and care during my stay were precious.

I thank Dr. S. Kumar, Reader, Department of Agriculture Microbiology, TNAU, Coimbatore. As a doctoral committee member, he was there to help me with his valuable advice for my queries. He showed me different ways to approach problems in research.

I wish to record my cordial thanks to Dr. N. Thajudin, NFMC, BARD who helped me in cyanobacterial strain identification during my research work.

I am very grateful to all the staff members Dr. M. Sundararaman, Dr. D. Prabaharan and research scholars Mr. V. Viswajith, Ms. D. S. Prabha, Mr. Abraham, Christopher and Technical assistants Mr. G. Sekar, Mrs. P. Susila, Mrs. P. Muthulakshmi and Mrs. R. Rajeshwari of NFMC, BARD for their kind cooperation during my research work tenure.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. S. Selvaraj, Head, Department of Microbiology and Botany, A. V. V. Poondi Pushpam College of Arts and Science, Poondi, who gave insightful comments and reviewed my work on a very short notice. He was always there to meet and talk about my ideas, to proofread and mark up my papers. and chapters, and to ask me good questions to help me think through my problems (whether philosophical, analytical or computational).

Words are insufficient to express my gratefulness to Dr. S. Arumugam, Dean R&D, Kalasalingam University. His valuable advice for statistical data analysis needs a special mention.

I express my sincere thanks to, Mr. T. Kalasalingam, Chancellor, Kalasalingam University, Dr. C. Thangaraj, Vice Chancellor, Kalasalingam University, Mr. K. Sritharan, Pro-Chancellor, Kalasalingam University, Dr. S. Selvamaani, Principal, AKCAS, Dr. G. Sangiliyandi, Head, Department of Biotechnology, KU, Dr. Ramakrishna, Principal, M.G.R college of arts, Hosur, Dr. Parasuram, Principal, J.J.College, Pudhukottai, Principal, and Swamiji Athmanandha, Secretary, Sri Saradha Niketan College of Science for Women, Karur for their kind cooperation and help extended during my research tenure.

I am indebted to Ms. C. N. Pratheeba, Head of department-Chemical Engineering, Kalasalingam University, for the care and suggestions, without her presence I would have not been able to complete this thesis at this time.

I wish to record my cordial thanks to Dr. S. Senthil Kumar, PDF Fellow, CCMB, Hyderabad, Ms. D. Pavithra, Research scholar, CCMB, Hyderabad, Mr. Kathiresan, Research scholar, IIT Madras, Ms. G. Deepa, Lecturer, A.K College of Pharmacy, Ms. Anita, Research Scholar, KU, Ms. M. K. Deepa, Lecturer, AKCE, Ms. V. Lakshmi Prabha, AKCE, for their helping hands during my research period.

I also show my gratitude to Mr. Murali M.E., Ms. Poorani, M. E., Ms. Vanitha, M. E., Mr. N. M. Saravanan B.Tech, Mr. A. Nimalanandhan, B.Tech, and Mr. M. Ignatious Vasanth, B.Tech, Mr. C. Prakash, B.Tech, Kalasalingam University, for the support they showed during my research work.

Mr. S. Loganathan, Software Engineer, deserves a special mention, he helped me develop my idea and vision of what computers and statistics should do for researchers. His painstaking efforts in data entry and encouragement were invaluable.
My sincere thankfulness to Mr. Krishnaswamy, Experiment field owner, for being benevolent, in lending his field for my experiments was invaluable help during my research tenure.

I also express thanks Dr Santhiagu, Dr. K. Sundar, Mr. Sheik Pran Babu, Mr. Kasimani, Ms. Pandiprabha, Ms. Umamaheswari, Dr. S. R. Senthilkumar, Mr. Senthil kumar, Mr. Venkatesh Babu, Ms. Sathya, Mr. Ganesha moorthy, Mr. Bharath, Mr. B. Rama, and Mr. Rama, Biotechnology department, Kalasalingam University for their extended cooperation rendered during my research tenure.

I realize how futile mere words are only when I try to express my feelings and gratitude for my parents, for educating me with aspects from both arts and sciences, my beloved husband Mr. R. Durai, my son, Manu, my sisters, Ms. P. Punitha and Mrs. J. Shanthi brothers, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Sudha Bala Suseendran, Mr. Shyam kumar, and Dr. Shivakumar, and my friends for unconditional support and encouragement to pursue my interests, even when the interests went beyond boundaries. Without them none of this would have been possible and I stand eternally indebt for all their love, moral support, encouragement and unshakable faith.

I praise almighty who has bestowed me the courage and strength to achieve this target.

Last but not least I want to thank all those who have helped me directly or indirectly to make this work a success but missed a mention.
