

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Gratitude is the music of the heart. This is my uppermost feeling, as I put finishing touches to my doctoral dissertation. My long journey of graduation followed by research endeavour at St. Joseph's has been unique and memorable in ever so many ways. In this challenging path towards knowledge, there has been the presence of one who stood by me through the thick of the battle, journeying with me and from whom I drew inspiration unparalleled. It is none other than my Revered Research Advisor Dr. S. John Britto, S.J., former Principal and presently the Director, Centre for Natural Resources Studies. I am ever indebted to him for his constant guidance, motivation and support. In spite of his busy academic schedule, I could get from him valuable time reserved for me. He assiduously nurtured in me a thoroughness and scientific attitude, which enabled me to complete my assigned investigation with commitment and conviction.

I am pleased to thank Dr. M. Patrick Gomez, Head, Department of Botany and other Professors for their encouragement and help.

I am much indebted to Fr. Rector, Fr. Principal and the Jesuit Management of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous) for the facilities offered to carry out my research activities.

I thank Dr. D.I. Arockiasamy, Reader, Department of Botany for his encouragement and support.

Let me also record my indebtedness to Dr. R. Selvaraj (former HOD), Dr. L. Arnold Wilson, Mr. T. John Britto (Retd. Professors) and Dr. V.M.A. Khadir (Head, Department of Biochemistry), Dr. G. Melchias (Reader), Dr. S. Jayachandran (Reader), J. John and Dr. S. Senthilkumar, Lecturers, Department of Botany, St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirappalli.

With filial devotion I offer my humble and loving tribute to my loving parents. I cordially thank my colleagues N. Nagamurugan, S. Soosai Raj, E. Natarajan, D. Natarajan, S. Ravipaul, T. Francis Xavier, D. Alagesa Pandian, S. Jayakumar, A. Giriraj and Mrs. G. Pushpalatha who extended their full cooperation throughout this venture.

I am pleased to thank Dr. M.V. Rao, Reader, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirapalli, the Doctoral Committee Member, for his valuable suggestions.
