PREFACE

This work makes an attempt to study the process of Sanskritisation of the Deities of Folk Tradition and Hindu Revivalism in Tamil Nadu. The central theme focuses around various methods of Sanskritisation of the folk deities and its outcome.

There are many assistance in completing this task. First and foremost, I am unable to find adequate words to express my deep gratitude to my revered guide and my mentor Dr T. Sundararaj, Reader and Head of the Department of History, who gave me suggestions in organising this thesis and helped me to accomplish it in time. His inquisitiveness, tireless work and research spirit enabled me to show much involvement in this study.

I express my sincere thanks and gratitude to the doctoral committee members Dr S. Marthandasekaran, Professor of History, Periyar EVR College, Tiruchirappalli and Dr M. Vijji, Professor of History, Holy Cross College, Tiruchirappalli for their scholarly assistance in shaping my ideas in this thesis.

I sincerely acknowledge the assistance of Rev. Dr S. Lazar SJ, Rector, St Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli. I acknowledge the assistance of Rev. Dr D. Selvanayagam SJ, former Secretary and Rev. Dr A. Joseph SJ, Secretary of St Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli. I also express my sentiments of gratitude to former
Preface

Principals Rev. Dr S. John Britto SJ and Rev. Dr AG Leonard SJ for their motivation and direction.

I specially thank Rev. Dr R. Rajarathinam SJ, Principal, St Joseph’s College for having provided me with the facilities in respect of this project work.

I would like to acknowledge the regards and constant encouragement of Rev. Dr S. Mani Valan SJ, Rev Fr M. Devasagayam SJ, Rev. Fr S. Maria Singarayar SJ and other members of Jesuit Community.

I am extremely grateful to Dr N. Arunachalam, Dr T. Mathiyazhagan, Dr M. Arumairaj, Dr C. Vijayasingh, Rev. Dr MA Xavier SJ, Rev. Fr G. Joseph Antonysamy SJ, Dr G. John Gilbert, professors of Department of History, St Joseph’s College for their valuable suggestions.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr A. Rajendran, Department of History, Bishop Heber College, Tiruchirappalli, Dr C. Thomas, Department of History, Periyar EVR College, Tiruchirappalli, Prof. Kailasam and Prof. K. Pandian of Department of History, National College, Tiruchirappalli for their kind words.

I have been indebted to Dr A. Antony Cruz, Dr U. Raju, Dr A. Joseph Sahayaraj, Department of Tamil, Dr G. Stephen Vincent, Department of Statistics, Mr R. Jayakanth and Mr S. Veeramani, Department of English, Dr LJ Chaarlus,
Preface

Dr I. Francis Gnanasekar, Mr VS Christhuraj and Mr A. Francis Vijayakumar, Department of Commerce, Dr G. Melchias, Mr S. P. Anand, Department of Plant Biology and Plant Biotechnology, Ms K. Anitha Sagayamary, Department of Computer Science, St Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli for their ideas and excellent assistance in writing this thesis.

I duly acknowledge the services of all the staff members of Folk Lore Resource and Research Centre, St Xavier’s College, Palayamkottai, Department of Sociology, Tamil University, Thanjavur, Madurai Kamaraj University Library, Chennai Archives and Library and Library of St Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli. I will always cherish their moral support throughout my career.

I extend my sincere thanks to Ms A. Judith Jayarani and Ms T. Sudheswari, for their continuous support, constant encouragement. I sincerely acknowledge the help and assistance rendered by Mr J. Saleth. Through him I got various information related to my subject. His untiring efforts instigated me to involve in this subject more deeply.

I owe my thanks to Mr Thomas Romauld, WISDOM Study Centre, Melapudur, Tiruchirappalli for his consistent support in this effort.

My gratitude is due to Mr SJ Anand and Mr S. Senthil of SKYSOFT Printers for their unstinted co-operation in this endeavour.
Preface

I have down pat the valuable assistance rendered by the fellow PhD scholars, M Phil research scholars, PG students of my own History Department as well as students from Departments of Tamil, PM & IR and Electronics. They were with me in undertaking the great task of supplying questionnaires to all the districts of Tamil Nadu. With their support this thesis gets a new outlook. I wholeheartedly acknowledge the respondents and interviewees for their response which gave a multi-dimensional outlook to my thesis.

I owe my special thanks to my Parents, Family Members and all others for their excellent co-operation in my endeavour.

S. Xavier