ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A word of thanks will not suffice the contribution of my professor, Dr. M. Vivekanandan who has been primarily instrumental in completing this thesis. His eloquence in the subject, guidance, motivation and ability to perceive problems was a constant inspiration for me throughout the period of my research. His attention to details, vast reservoir of knowledge, methodical supervision, sharp acumen, astute observation and ability to look beyond the immediate, has helped me a lot. I take this opportunity to express my humble thanks to my respected professor.

With the deep sense of gratitude, I place on record my sincere thanks to Dr. M. Devatha, Prof. & Head, Department of Biology and Plant Biotechnology, Periyar E.V.R. College, Tiruchirappalli, for her kind hospitality, keen interest, timely advise and valuable suggestions throughout the period of study.

I thank Prof. A. S. Rao, Prof. A. Ganapathi and Dr. M. Krishnan, in the Department of Biotechnology for inspiring encouragement and continuous support during the entire period of this investigation.

I place a record of my gratitude to Dr. T. Selvaraj, Reader, Department of Botany, AVVM Sri Pushpam College, Poondi, for helping me in identifying the VAMF spore.

I am very thankful to Prof. N. Abubucker, Head, Post Graduate and Research Department of Botany, National College, Trichy for his help in the identification of fungal species.

I am fortunate to have seniors Dr. V. C. Saralabai, Dr. R. Suresh Babu, Dr. P. Agastian, Dr. M. Ghouse Basha who taught me the basic techniques of research and helped me in several ways. Their care, concern and encouragement gave me the strength throughout.
I was very lucky to have colleagues, Mr. M. J. Abdul Hameed, Mr. J. Kanda Kumar, Mr. V. Sakthivel, Ms. M. Thaslim, and Mr. G. Doulathkhan. I owe a lot for providing this excellent working atmosphere wherein I could accommodate whatever little I wanted to do.

I am particularly thankful to Mr. G. Kandasamy, Mrs. S. Maheshwari, Ms. G. Subathra, Mr. A. Murugan, Mr. Murugesan, Mr. P. Rengasamy, Mr. T. Balamurugan for helping me with the office work and field experiments.
