ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Fear of God is the Beginning of Wisdom”. Earnestly I thank and praise the Almighty God, the Source of all Wisdom and knowledge for His benevolence and blessings, inspirations, all along the journey of my research for creating massive social transformation with a new structure and approach through the proposed model.

I am deeply indebted to offer my gratefulness to Prof. Dr. P. Ilango, Reader in Social Work, the eminent personality who carefully guided every progress of my research until the end.

I am very much pleased to express my sincere thanks to Dr. A. Relton, Head, reader in social work and Dr. Godwin, reader in social work, for their support and guidance all through the progress of my research.

I profoundly thank Prof. Marcus Boominathan, the Principal, Bishop Heber College, Thiruchirapalli, for encouraging and permitting to continue my research through this esteemed institution.

I do sincerely owe my gratitude to Dr. Kannan, reader in social work, Madurai Institute of Social Sciences for his scholarly guidance in discovering the statistical results.

My deep sentiment of gratitude to Rev. Fr. John Edwin, a dreamer of the futuristic society and the founder of the concept Neighbourhood parliament, Nagercoil, for his inspiration and encouragement.

I ever remember the unconditional love and promising words of encouragement of my beloved parents Mr. A. Raphael and Mrs. A. Savariammal, who always uttered the words, “God is with you and you will do it”. It increased tremendous self confidence and self esteem in me

The Order of Friars Minor Capuchin of Tamil Nadu has played a vital role in supporting and strengthening to complete my research and they deserve my sincere gratitude.

I do humbly acknowledge with grateful heart, all those who have extended their kindness through various forms of support. They indeed deserve my gratitude. Mrs. Stephan Jeya Valar Mathi MSW (HR) had disseminated her knowledge on the concept of Neighbourhood parliament and helped to form the Questionnaires for the data collection. Miss Ambiga MSW and the staffs from NCN office, Nagercoil have helped the researcher to collect the accurate data by their very presence with the respondents for days together. Bro. Martin, Bro. Newton and Mrs. Milka Mary Kala MSW have assisted me in entering the data in to the systems and in the process of analysing the data. Fr. S. I. Wilson has shared his efficiency in polishing the language.

I gratefully remember the respondents, the ministers of Children parliaments, especially Miss Sophia, Selvan. Paul Thomas the prime ministers of Nochiodaipatty children parliaments and all the NGOs that are networking with NCN state level network, for their contribution towards the completion of the research.

I do gratefully remember all those who have supported me either directly or indirectly through their prayers and encouragements in completing the research. May God bless you All and Reward you for your kindness.
