ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I embrace this opportunity of placing on record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S. PALANISWAMY, Reader and Head, Department of Social Work, Bharathidasan University under whose prolific and valuable guidance only this thesis was carried out, documented and submitted.

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks and deep sense of gratitude to Dr. SM. RAMASAMY, Director, Centre for Remote Sensing who is also Dean, Faculty of Science, Professor and Head, School of Earth Sciences, and Convenor, Informatics Centre, Bharathidasan University for seedling this new concept in my mind, framing the work plan and for his prolific guidance, comments, valuable suggestions, and untiring zeal in solving several problems and constant encouragement along with Dr. S. PALANISWAMY during the entire course of investigation.

I once again thank Dr. SM. RAMASAMY, Director, Centre for Remote Sensing for having extended financial support in the form of Junior Research Fellowship and also for having spared valuable satellite data, topographic sheets, aerial photographs and other forms of data and extending all possible help out of the way all through the course during my stay in Centre for Remote Sensing.

It is my privilege to record my deep sense of gratitude to MASTER VIJAYA NALLENDRAN SRISIVA for his love, and affection he ever shows towards me during these days.

I also gratefully acknowledge with thanks Mr. C. J. KUMANAN, Senior Scientist, Centre for Remote Sensing, Bharathidasan University for his contribution, valuable advice and continued moral support.

I sincerely record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S. VASUDEVAN, Scientist, Centre for Remote Sensing, Bharathidasan University for his meritorious technical support in operating various advanced computer programmes. Here I recall his moral support and encouraging words which enabled me documenting this thesis as early as possible.

I sincerely thank and record the guidance provided by Dr. S. Aruchamy, Reader, School of Earth Sciences, Bharathidasan University.

I kindly acknowledge Dr. M. Thavamani, Reader, Dept. of Sociology, School of Social Sciences, Bharathidasan University for his guidance in designing the methodology pertaining to Social Component.

I wish to thank National Remote Sensing Agency, (NRSA), Hyderabad and Tamil Nadu State Council for Science and Technology (TNSCS&T), Chennai and Authorities of Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli for having awarded me various Research Fellowships.

I gratefully acknowledge also the authorities of NIC-NET, Chennai, Directorate of Census operations, Chennai and Dept. of Rural Roads and Highways, Tirunelveli for having spared valuable data. I am very grateful to the officials at various levels in Madurai, Virudhunagar, Sivakangai, and Ramanathapuram Districts for their kind co-operation and generosity in providing data bases.
