ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I express my deepest gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Dr. Sangeeta, Professor in Special Education, Department of Education, Kurukshetra University for the conception and formation of the present work, as also for her invaluable guidance at all stages of my writing it. Indeed this research work would not have been complete, had she not given her ungrudging inspiration and support. I must say she has been truly my teacher, guide and philosopher in the real sense of the word.

I am grateful to Prof. Puran Singh, Chairperson, Department of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, for his help and advice for the completion of this research. I am also thankful to all the teachers in the Department of Education for their encouragement and help in my work.

I am highly indebted to the principals and teachers of various schools who cooperated me in the data collection for this research work.

I wish to convey my special words of thanks to Dr. Hardeep Joshi, Department of Psychology, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, Dr. Dinesh Kumar, Department of Special Education, D.S.M.N.R. University, Lucknow and Mrs. Shashi Sabharwal, Director of Dharamjeevi Institute of Professional Education, Kurukshetra for their helpful suggestions, encouragement and guidance to carry out this research.

I am highly thankful to the staff and librarians of Kurukshetra University and NCERT, New Delhi; SCERT, Gurgaon; SNDT
University, Mumbai, for their material assistance.

My deepest indebtedness is to my family members for their love, patience, cooperation, silent sacrifices and encouragement throughout the course of this study. Without their help this work could not have been completed. I am heartily thankful to my friends Dr. Divya Gaur and Raghuvir Taneja, for their helping attitude, cooperation and suggestions throughout the study.

I also feel greatly indebted to all those authors/researchers whose material has been quoted, a debt which cannot be articulated on account of its sheer humility.

Finally, I wish to thank Mr. Ajay Gupta who helped me in this study by typing the manuscript and giving the professional touch to the present work.
