ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Above all, the eternal thanks go to Almighty for all the blessings he has showered onto me. During the period of research, as always in the rest of my life, I have been blessed by Almighty with some astonishing people who have spun a web of support around me. Words can never be enough in expressing how grateful I am to those incredible people in my life who made this thesis possible. I would like an attempt to thanks them for making my time during my research, a period I will treasure.

First and foremost, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Sudesh, Chairperson, University School of Management, Kurukshetra University Kurukshetra for her enthusiastic encouragement throughout my research work. Her positive attitude, wide knowledge and logical way of thinking often enlightened my mind and opened new avenues when i got struck in research work. I lack in words to thank for her precious time and dedication. I am really fortunate to have her as my supervisor and it’s an honor for me to be one of her Ph.D. student.

I can never forget the encouragement and support of Professor B.S. Bodla, University School of Management, Kurukshetra University who always helped me to jump over hurdles, which came during academic period. I am really thankful to him for his exceedingly pleasant cooperation and affectionate attitude.

I gratefully thank to Professor Naresh Kumar, Professor Nirmala Chaudhary, Dr. Ramesh Chander, Dr. Anil Mittal, Dr. Sushil Sharma, Dr. Saloni P. Diwan, Ms. Pradeepika, Dr. Simmi Arora and Dr. Ajay Solkhe, faculty members of University School of Management, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for their invaluable advice and cooperation as and when entailed. All the faculty members always stood beside me in all type of situations during my research work.

I would like to specially acknowledge Dr. Neeraj Kaushik, Professor NIT for his academic support and guidance. I truly appreciate the time he spared out of his busy schedule and his comments have always been valuable for me.
My appreciation goes to non teaching staff for their valuable help. I specially thank Ms. Kanchan, Superintendent, University School of Management for her concern and help with various administrative procedures, Mr. Gulab Singh for providing library facility when required and Mr. Ashok for his technical help.

I am greatly indebted to all the respondents who took part in my research work and spared their precious time for answering the questions and their judgement attitude during survey. I also acknowledge their invaluable ideas and comments during survey. I also acknowledge their invaluable ideas and comments during survey. Without their help, this thesis would not have seen as it is.

Lifes’ greatest blessing is familys’ love. I want to pay my emotions and respect to my father Sh. Amar Nath Chugh and mother Smt. Shakuntla for their incredible love, support and prayers for me. It was their undying inspiration and unending blessings that worked as the base of this long venture. Both my parents have installed many admirable qualities in me and given me a good foundation to meet life. I am grateful to them for all the sacrifices they made to help me in completing my research work. I can never repay my parents for always being on my side to boost spirit in completing this assignment.

I find difficult to verbalize my deepest sense of appreciation to my brother in law Mr. Rakesh Munjal. The words felt short to express how great it was to have such a wonderful mentor. His prayer for me was what sustained me thus so far. His genuine care & concern and faith in me enabled me to attend to life while also earning my Ph.D. He taught me about hard work & self respect, about persistence and about how to be independent. For all this, though thanks is not enough but it gives me huge and amazing privilege to express my regards to him. I am forever and ever grateful to him for advising me at each and every step of my life and for making my research aptitude years before I actually indulged in research.

Finally, I take this opportunity to thank one and all who directly or indirectly helped me in completing this task. Once again, Thank you all

(RAJNI CHUGH)
