ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Firstly, I would like to show my deepest gratitude to my Lord, who gives me bounties to finish my study and also for all extraordinary chances in my life.

My most earnest acknowledgement must go to my advisor Prof. (Dr.) K.R. Aneja, former Professor and Chairperson, Dept. of Microbiology for his supervision, advice and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. I could not have imagined having a better advisor than Prof. (Dr.) K.R. Aneja for my Ph.D. who enabled me to make some material contribution to the pre-existing ocean of knowledge and thoughts. His guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. His patience and support helped me overcome many crisis situations and finish this thesis. I hope that one day I would become as good an advisor to my students as Dr. Aneja has been to me. He has been always there to listen and give advice. I am deeply grateful to him for the long discussions that helped me sort out the technical details of my work.

My reverent and gratitude is for my Co-Supervisor Dr. Neeraj Aggarwal, Assistant Professor, whose dynamic supervision, keen interest, illustrious advice, philanthropic attitude and encouragement throughout my research work enabled me to achieve my goals. I have been amazingly fortunate to have a co-advisor who gave me the freedom to explore on my own and at the same time the guidance to recover when my steps faltered. Dr. Neeraj's insightful comments and constructive criticisms at different stages of my research were thought-provoking and they helped me focus my ideas. I am grateful to him for holding me to a high research standard and enforcing strict validations for each research result, and thus teaching me how to do research.

I would take this opportunity to extend my gratitude and sincere thanks to Vice-Chancellor, Mr. Hardeep Kumar, IAS for provision of research facilities in the Department of Microbiology to carry out my Ph.D. work so efficiently.
