LIST OF FIGURES AND TABLES

1.11: Consumer buying process.
1.12: Factors influencing consumer decision making.
1.13: Benefits of private label brands to retailers.
1.15: Strategies adopted by store brands.
1.17: Perception and reality.
1.18: Formation of perception.
6.1a: Awareness of private label brand.
6.1: Top five private label brand stores.
6.2: Number of respondents buying private label.
6.3: Reason for visiting stores.
6.4: All my friends do shopping at these stores so I also do.
6.5: Excellent displays at stores.
6.6: Influence of sales staff.
6.7: Brand attributes specific factors and their importance in respondents’ purchase decision of private label brand.
6.8: Brand attributes specific factors and their importance in respondents’ purchase decision of private label brand.
6.9: Most preferred brand category of Men’s wear.
6.10: Most preferred brand category of Women’s wear.
6.11: Most preferred brand category for kids’ wear.
6.12: Comparison In Terms Of Price.
6.13: Comparison In Terms Of Quality.
6.14: Comparison In Terms Of Value for Money Proposition.
6.16: Comparison In Terms Of Number of Respondents Buying.
6.17: Comparison In Terms Of Variety.
6.18: Comparison In Terms Of High Status Orientation
6.19: Comparison In Terms Of Cheap and Trendy Image
6.20: Comparison In Terms Of Exchange Benefits Offered By the Brands
6.21: Comparison In Terms Of Willingness to Compromise A Little On Quality
6.22: Comparison Of In Terms Of Complaint Handling
6.23: Comparison In Terms Of New and Innovative Products Offered By Brands
6.24: Gender analysis for price of private label brands
6.25: Gender analysis for price of national brands
6.26: Gender analysis for value for money of private label brands
6.27: Gender analysis for value for money of national brands.
6.28: Gender analysis for cheap and trendy image of private label brands
6.29: Gender analysis for cheap and trendy image of national brands
6.30: Gender analysis for acceptable quality of private label brands
6.31: Gender analysis for acceptable quality of national brands
6.32: Gender analysis for willingness to compromise on quality of private label brands
6.33: Gender analysis for willingness to compromise on quality of national brands
6.34: Gender analysis on variety of private label brands
6.35: Gender analysis on variety of national brands
6.36: Gender analysis on innovation of private label brands
6.37: Gender analysis on innovation of national brands
6.38: Gender analysis on status orientation of private label brands
6.39: Gender analysis on status orientation of national brands
6.40: Gender analysis on exchange policy of private label brands
6.41: Gender analysis on exchange policy of national brands
6.42: Gender analysis on complaint handling system of private label brands
6.43: Gender analysis on complaint handling system of national brands
6.44: Comparison of price perception of PLB across Income groups
6.45: Comparison of price perception of NB across income groups
6.46: Comparison of quality perception of PLB across Income groups
6.47: Comparison of quality perception of NB across three income groups
6.48: Comparison of variety across income groups
6.49: Comparison of national brand variety among three income categories of respondent
6.50: Comparison of other factors among three income categories of respondent
6.51: Comparison of national brand other factors among three income categories of respondent
6.52: Opinion of educational categories on price related factors about private label brand
6.53: Opinion of educational categories on price related factors about national brand
6.54: Opinion of educational categories on quality related factors about private label brand
6.55: Opinion of educational categories on quality related factors about national brand
6.56: Opinion of educational categories on variety and innovation related factors about private label brand
6.57: Opinion of educational categories on variety and innovation related factors about national brand
6.58: Opinion of educational categories on secondary factors about private label brand
6.59: Opinion of educational categories on secondary factors about national brand
6.60: Comparison of PLB price among three occupation categories of respondent
6.61: Comparison of opinion of different occupation categories on price related factors of national brand
6.62: Comparison of opinion of different occupation categories on quality related factors of national brand
6.63: Comparison of opinion of different occupation categories on quality related factors of national brand
6.64: Comparison of opinion of different occupation categories on variety and innovation related factors of private label brand
6.65: Comparison of opinion of different occupation categories on variety and innovation related factors of national brand
6.66: Comparison of opinion of different occupation categories on other factors of private label brand
6.67: Comparison of opinion of different occupation categories on secondary factors of national brand