ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is a matter of great honour for me to present my thesis report on "Economic Crises and its Contagion Effect on the Indian Stock Market: An Empirical Analysis". First and foremost, I am profoundly grateful to my project guide Prof. Jaydeep Mukherjee, Faculty in Economics, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, Deemed University under Department of Commerce, New Delhi for his expert guidance and continuous encouragement during all stages of thesis. His help in the form of valuable information and research thoughts at proper time has brought life in this thesis. I feel lucky to get an opportunity to work with him. I am thankful to the kindness and generosity shown by him towards me, as it helped me immensely in completing the research. I also wish to thank the entire faculty of Department of Economics, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, Deemed University under Department of Commerce, New Delhi for their constant encouragement.

I would like to thank Prof. Rakesh Mohan Joshi, Professor and Chairperson (International Collaboration and Research) and Prof. Debashish Chakraborty, Programme Director, Ph.D., Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, Delhi for giving me an opportunity to be a part of this prestigious institute, and allowing me to pursue this course.

I would like to thank Prof. O.P. Wali and Prof. Vijaya Katti, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, Delhi for their constant support and motivation during the course and showing faith in me.

I would like to express my gratitude to Prof. Dilip Kumar, Assistant Professor, IIM Kashipur and Prof. Biswajit Nag, Associate Professor, IIFT for the stimulating discussions and their constant interest in my progress during my Ph.D. studies. I take this opportunity to acknowledge various people, who I met during my Ph.D. tenure and discussed various aspects of my study-Prof. Anjali Malik, Associate Professor, S.P. Jain Institute, Mumbai and Prof Ajay Chauhan, Associate Professor.
Professor, IMT Ghaziabad. Special thanks to Ms. Rakhi Singh, Associate Professor, G. D. Goenka Institute, Gurgaon, Ms. Sakshi Sharma, Research Scholar, FMS, Delhi and Mr. Sriram Birudavolu, Director, Oracle who were always with me during the good and hard times of this study. I would like to thank all the staff members at Indian Institute of Foreign Trade for allowing me to use the facilities.

Words would be little to express my feeling and gratitude towards my parents, Mr. Narain Rajwani and (Late) Mrs. Mohini Rajwani; my brother, Vikas Rajwani; my sister, Ms. Veena Dewani; my parents-in-laws, Mr. Kanhaiya Lalchandani and Mrs. Shanu Lalchandani. Your prayers let me sustain so far. I would like to extend appreciation to my husband, Mr. Badal Lalchandani who spent so many sleepless nights to help me complete my work and give ear to all my queries. I would also like to thank my little daughter, Laranya who allowed me to work in the library on all weekends and spend less time with her; and all other members of my family for their continued love, cooperation, moral support and encouragement. I consider myself the luckiest in the world to have such a supportive family for standing behind me with their love and support. I owe all my success to them.

Besides this, several people have knowingly or unknowingly helped me in the successful completion of this study.

Finally, I would like to pray and say thanks to the Almighty for giving me the strength and patience to accomplish my task.

Shegorika Rajwani
