CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION                                                                                                           1-9

1.1 Objectives
1.2 Hypothesis
1.3 Research Questions
1.4 Methodology

Chapter One

MAPPING INDIGENOUS                                                                                           10-57

1.1 The United Nations on ‘Indigenous’
1.2 Colonial/Post-Colonial Categorization of Indigenous Societies
1.3 Debates on ‘Indigenous’ in India
1.4 The Adivasis: A Brief Overview
1.5 ‘Scheduled Tribes’ as Indigenous People of India
1.6 Constitutional and Legal Provisions
1.7 Rationale for Cultural Authenticity: North-East India
1.8 Return of the Natives: Emerging Indigenous Religious Identities

Chapter Two

INDIGENOUS SOCIETIES OF NORTH-EAST INDIA                                        58-105

1.1 North East India: An Overview
1.2 Tribes of Arunachal Pradesh: An Overview
1.3 Social Structure
1.4 The Morung (Dormitory)
1.5 The Kebang: Indigenous Political Institution
1.6 Festivals of Arunachal Pradesh
1.7 Brief Account of Zeliangrong Nagas
1.8 Family, Clans and Permutations
1.9 The Morung (Dormitory)
Chapter Three

CHRISTIANITY AND CONVERSION IN NORTH EAST INDIA DURING THE COLONIAL PERIOD

1.1 The British Conquest of North East India: The Case of Zeliangrong Nagas
1.2 British Administration in North East Frontier Agency (NEFA)
1.3 Colonialism and Christian Missions
1.4 Christian Missionaries’ Approach in North East India
1.5 Christianity in North East India
1.6 Christianity in Naga areas: The Case of Zeliangrong
1.7 Reasons for Conversion
1.8 Proselytization
1.9 Christianity in (NEFA) Arunachal Pradesh

Chapter Four

DONYI-POLO MOVEMENT
1.1 The Donyi-Polo Nomenclature
1.2 The Gangging Movement
1.3 The Donyi-Polo Priest (Miri)
1.4 Donyi-Polo Conception of Spirit/Life after Death
1.5 Donyi-Polo Yelam Kebang
1.6 Indigenous Faith and Cultural Society of Arunachal Pradesh (IFCSAP)
1.7 Arunachal Pradesh Freedom of Religious Act 1978
1.8 Converts & non-Converts: Liberals & Conservatives

2.1 The Hindutva Campaign against Conversion
2.2 Christians & Hindus: Cross vs. Saffron
2.3 Hindu Organizations (RSS) in Arunachal Pradesh
2.4 Critical Analysis of Hindutva
2.5 Mode of Re-vitalizing the Reform

Chapter Five

HERAKA MOVEMENT

1.1 The Beginning: Haipou Jadonang
1.2 Rani Gaidinliu: The Second Phase
1.3 Philosophy of Heraka
1.4 Heraka Conception of Spirit/Life after Death
1.5 The Heraka Priest (Tingkupeu)
1.6 Kelumki or House of Worship
1.7 Celebration of Festivals
1.8 The Full Moon (Jalua)
1.9 Brief Account on Hindutva Politics

2.1 Heraka and Hindus: The RSS Politics of Assimilation
2.2 Heraka and Christianity: Loss of Culture is Loss of Identity
2.3 Constructing Heraka Identity
Chapter Six

A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF DONYI-POLO & HERAKA MOVEMENTS

1.1 The Hindutva Politics
1.2 Institutionalizing Place of worship
1.3 Life in the Other World
1.4 Institution of Priesthood
1.5 Sacralizing Space: Religious & Non-religious
1.6 Codifying Religious Text
1.7 Response to Christian Proselytization
1.8 Mode of Re-vitalization: A Comparative Analysis

CONCLUSION

BIBLIOGRAPHY