Acknowledgements

First and foremost, a heartfelt “Thank You” to my supervisor Dr. Manidipa Sen for giving me all the support I needed during my research work in JNU. It would have been impossible for me to complete this work without my guide’s full cooperation, understanding, motivation, support and guidance. Her constant support encourages me to approach her whenever I needed her guidance, correction and advice. She guides me academically and personally; she is my “guide” in the true sense of the term. Her strong standing in Philosophy of Mind helps me in my work, and she gives me her full support while I struggle with ideas and words. Her explanations enable me to see many philosophical problems clearly and develop better understanding of many important concepts. I want to thank her for the many books and articles she gives/recommends that help me immensely in my research work. I really feel privilege to work under the guidance of Dr. Sen, and will always cherish the time spent on discussions and analysis of philosophy as well as life in general. “Thank You Ma’am.”

I express my thanks to Prof. Satyapal Gautam, Prof. R. P. Singh, and Dr. Bhagat Oinam for their valuable encouragements, support and guidance throughout my academic study. They were always approachable for suggestions, clarifications and help. Without their supports it would have been a very difficult years.

I gratefully acknowledge the academic support of ICPR Lucknow, Cyber Library and Central Library JNU, for providing indispensable books, articles and journals I need for my work. A big “Thanks” to UGC for Rajiv Gandhi Fellowship and JNU for Special Scholarship for providing the necessary financial help for my PhD course.

My heartfelt “Thanks” to JNU Christian Fellowship, CF Peace Group and KWSD JNU Prayer Cell for their prayers, encouragements and supports whenever I needed them. It is a privilege for me to be a part of these groups. “Thank You” to Uncle Dino and Aunty Dari Touthang as well as Uncle CB and Aunty Selina Samuel for your prayers and encouragements when I needed them the most. I shall remain always thankful for sharing their valuable time for encouragement that gives me strength to surmount challenging phase of my life.

A warm and special “Thanks” to my family, my pillars of strength, who supported me in all my pursuits – (L)Phalkhohat Kipgen, (L)Hoijavah Haokip, Seikholen, (L)Shothong Haokip, Kimkhoneng Haokip, (L)Chungsei Haokip, Nemkholhoi Haokip, Awtkhamong Haokip, Lhing khochin Haokip, Ujanglet, (L)Udim, Khukhup, Chochong, Chingboi, Alhing, Sangminthang, Seiminthang, Uhaopu, Uting, Minlun, Onesima, John, James, Pa Dousei, Aunty Sanju, Cynthia and Alex. It is their loves that give me the strength to complete my thesis. Their prayers and encouragements give me the much needed patience, perseverance and focus to complete my work on time. Without their support it would have been impossible for me to continue my PhD thesis and finally complete it. I will ever remain grateful to each of them for giving me their full co-operations and provide for my needs throughout my studies.

I want to thank my friends who always are there to support me – Shilpi, Ananya, Chongpi, Tingcha, Kimneinou, Ruth, Boinu, Marykim, Elle, Rachna, Jojou, Thetheim, Bibi, Natasha, Manju Ma’am, Pragya, Gazala, Asang, Francis, Afzal, Satyen, Pawan, Boithang, Khailam, Henminthang, Goumin lun and Mangcha. Their encouragements and prayers help see me through tough times.

Above all, I thank God for blessing me with such wonderful people in my life. It is God’s faithfulness that sees me through tough times and gives me the strength to overcome them. I thank God for blessing me with good health which enables me to complete my PhD thesis and giving me loving family and friends.
