Acknowledgements

First and foremost, I owe sense of gratitude to all known and unknown scholars, who have worked out their research on Participatory Governance and Panchayati Raj. They not only inspired but also made me interested to choose this worth researching field of study for my research work.

I am indebted to my supervisor Dr. Milap Punia for his unstinted support, diligent effort, healthy criticism, encouragement and constructive suggestions without which this work would never have evolved. During my research work he plays the role of a father more than a supervisor.

I am very grateful to my M. Phil. supervisor Prof. M. H. Qureshi who gave me the direction to work on this topic.

I am extremely thankful to the staff members of a number of Institute and department libraries, especially JNU and Documentation Unit of CSRD, Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India, New Delhi, Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA), New Delhi, Institute of Social Science, New Delhi, Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Government of Rajasthan, Jaipur, Department of Panchayati Raj and Rural Development, Government of Rajasthan, Indira Gandhi Institute of Panchayati Raj and Rural development, Jaipur, HCM Rajasthan Institute of Public Administration, Jaipur, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur, District information Centre, Alwar & Nagaur etc.

The contribution of Rajnish sir, Gautam, Nanak and Gopalji (Lunwa) is unforgettable who helped me in many ways whenever I approached. I have deep feeling towards all my classmates and friends.

I am very respectful to my family members especially my father and phuphaji who have patiently look forward to me in pursuing my career. Without their blessings, this study could not have taken the present shape.

Last but not the least, I wish to thank all those at JNU who have helped me in one way or the other in completing the present study.

All criticism and suggestions are welcome.

OM PRAKASH KOLI