ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words are sometimes hard to find when you are trying to say thanks for something so priceless as loving criticism, considerate helpfulness and valuable guidance. Gratitude and sincerity resemble a spice too much to repel you and too little leave you wanting. Yet, facts must be evidently acknowledged and honest thankfulness unequivocally stated. This is what I have humbly attempted to do here.

I acknowledge with sincere thanks, the affectionate nature, heartening words and constant encouragement of Dr. R.P. Kala, M.S., Associate Professor in the Department of Surgery, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi, which has provided me the confidence and enthusiasm so essentially vital for successful accomplishment of such a project. His constant and meticulous supervision of every minute detail, constructive and valuable criticism and efficient & unfainting beneficance throughout this study have made this travail delightful and possible for me.

I owe a great debt of gratitude to Dr. S.L. Agarwal, M.S., F.R.C.S., Professor & Head of the Department of Surgery, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi, who for almost whole year gave me encouragement, concrete suggestions and close supervision.
