

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my revered supervisor Dr. R.K. Jena, Professor, Post-Graduate Department of Commerce, Utkal University, who has been a continuous source of inspiration, wisdom and strength to me throughout the present study. My association with him has been a bliss from the heavens.

I must put on record my gratefulness to my teachers Professor B.N. Pattnaik and Professor P.C. Tripathy of the P.G. Department of Commerce, Utkal University for their encouragement to complete the work.

I am extremely indebted to all those individuals and paper mills who have provided material for study, supplied data for analysis, granted interviews for discussion, sent replies to my questionnaire unhesitatingly. I am grateful particularly to Messrs M.V.G. Rao, Managing Director, K. Bhaskar Reddy, Manager (Sales), Andhra Pradesh Paper Mills; Sukumar Sen, Vice President (Liaison), R.N. Srivastava, Vice President, K.G. Gopal Krishnan, Vice President (Sales), J.K. Paper Mills; R.G. Agrawal, Managing Director, Vidharva Paper Mills, Dr. Suvas Maheswari, Head, Research Laboratory, Orient Paper Mills, Santosh K. Modi, Ex-President, Federation of Paper Traders of India, Bombay, Ramesh Pradhan, Federation of Indian Chamber of Commerce, Uditeswar Das, Advocate, Cuttack; M.D. Shah, Marketing Manager, Rohit Paper & Pulp and Sanjeev Kothari, Director, Konark Paper Mills, Balasore (Orissa) for their co-operation in completing this research project.

In preparation of this thesis, I have drawn fairly upon the writings of a large number of eminent scholars. All of them deserve my grateful thanks.

Finally, I must express my thanks to M/s Vidyarthee Computers, 69, Satyanagar, Bhubaneswar-751 007, for the assistance rendered in giving an excellent shape to the dissertation.

Muralidhar Bhut
(Muralidhar Bhut)