ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset I must record my deep sense of gratitude to my efficient teacher and guide, Dr.(Mrs.) Navaneeta Rath, Asst. Professor, Head of the Department of Sociology, B.J.B. Autonomous College, Bhubaneswar, for her unflinching guidance, inspiring encouragement, whole hearted cooperation and timely advice towards the completion of this dissertation.

I am highly indebted to my esteemed teacher, Prof. Dr.(Mrs.) Sharada Rath for her able guidance, constructive criticism, valued advice and personal interest in my work.

I would like to extend my gratitude to my respected teachers Dr. S.N. Mishra, Dr. Amareswar Mishra, Dr. S.K. Pattanaik, Dr. B.N. Satpathy and Mrs. Smita Nayak, Department of Political Science, Utkal University for their advice, inspiration and cooperation.

In this research work, I gratefully acknowledge the assistance of the staff of Parija Library of Utkal University, Berhampur University Library, Orissa Legislative Assembly Library, Bhubaneswar, Library of Orissa State Archives, Bhubaneswar, Dr. Harekrishna Mahatab State Library, Bhubaneswar, Library of Census Bhawan, Orissa, Library of S.I.R.D., Bhubaneswar, Library of Nabkrushna Choudhury of Development Studies for preparation of this dissertation.

I am deeply indebted to all the staff of Nischintkoili Block Office, District Panchayat Office, Cuttack Collectorate for extending their helping hands during the course of my field study, and to the respondents of different panchayats under Nischintkoili Block for their free and frank opinion expressed in response to the questions connected with the interview schedule.

I can not forget the pain and strain taken by Rajesh Sahoo, Print-Man, Bhubaneswar, in orderly typing the whole dissertation to my complete satisfaction.

My thanks are also due to all my closest friends for their moral support and untimely help.

I take this opportunity to tender my sincere reverence to my parents who encouraged me to undertake this study. They have provided the moral support and mental guidance to take up my mission a success.

I extend my gratitude to my parents-in-laws who have always encouraged me to complete the work.

I am very much grateful to my husband Sri Ramanand Prusty who has helped me at all stages to complete my work. Without his sincere cooperation, encouragement and good wishes, it would have been difficult for me to complete the work.

Last but not least, I owe my heartiest thanks to my elder brother Sri Digbijaya Swain who has remained constantly by my side to oversee the progress of my work. It is only for his blessing, selfless sacrifice and constant inspiration enabled me to come to this stage and hence I honestly admit that without him, my work would not have been completed.

Finally, I surrender at the lotus feet of LORD JAGANNATH for his benediction in my success and progress.
