Acknowledgement

Many are the debts of gratitude which I owe to several persons and institutions in the preparation of my Ph.D. Thesis: "Sri Aurobindo's Vision of Human Unity".

Of them, I am extremely indebted to my Guide-cum-Supervisor Dr. Syama Charan Mohanty, Sr. Lecturer in Political Science, Ravenshaw (Jr) College, Cuttack and Co-guide-cum-Supervisor Dr. (Mrs) Mandakini Das, Reader in Political Science, Ravenshaw (Auto) College, Cuttack, for their incessant help, able guidance and evincing interest in the entire period of my research work.

I am also grateful to Prof. (Dr) Bijoyini Mohanty, Prof. B.C. Das, Prof. (Dr) Amareswar Mishra, Prof. (Dr) Bramhananda Satapathy, Prof. (Dr) Surya Narayan Mishra and many more respected members of the faculty of Political Science for their inspiration, valuable advice and ungrudging co-operation.

Thanks are also due to the authorities and librarians of Sri Aurobindo Ashram Library, Pondicherry, Institute of Human Studies, Hyderabad, Parija Library of Utkal University, Kanika Library of Ravenshaw College, Orissa State Legislative Assembly Library, Bhubaneswar, Matrubhan Library and Sudarsan Mahavidyalaya Library etc. for granting me necessary permission to consult their valuable collections.
My sincere thanks are also due to the family of Dr. Indramani Jena, Ratnakar Ray, P.K.Mishra, Yogedra Nath Sahoo and near & dear ones of my family for their inspiration acting as catalyst during the tiring hours of study.

I will do injustice to this page if I forget to mention the encouragement rendered by my wife 'Dugu' and daughter 'Mama' which has sustained me all throughout this research work.

I deeply express my gratitude to my father Sri Dushasan Kar and mother Smt. Kesani Devi whose blessings have dragged me to the conclusion of my research and to whom this thesis is dedicated.

Last but not the least, I acknowledge the cordial cooperation rendered by Sri Ashok K Mishra for his sincere secretarial assistance in time.
