ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am short of words to express my deep sense of gratitude to my guide Dr. G.N. Sahu, Ex-Director, Higher Education of Orissa; who has supervised my research project and guided its progress at every stage till its completion. It is needless to mention that without his unhesitant assistance, this thesis would not have seen the light of the day. In fact, he is the main source of inspiration for me from the very beginning. His timely suggestions helped me to improve the standard of my work.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Ranjan Kumar Bal, Professor and Head of the Post Graduate Department of Commerce, Utkal University, for his kind help and valuable suggestions from time to time to improve the quality of my thesis.

I place on record my gratitude and regards to my teachers for their suggestions and indeed without their blessings this work would not have been completed.

I am thankful to the librarians and staff of National Library, Calcutta, the Institute of Public Enterprises, Hyderabad, Utkal University, Berhampur University, Sambalpur University, Osmania University, Andhra University and Madras University for giving me an opportunity to go through different books, publications and theses for my work.

I am also indebted to Sri Biswambar Padhee, Reader in English, Government Autonomous College, Bhawanipatna for going through the language of my thesis.
I am also thankful to Dr. G. Rajgopal Rao, Reader in Commerce, Government Autonomous College, Bhawanipatna, for his valuable suggestions during my research work.

I am extremely grateful to the employees of Steel Authority of India Limited and its units, TISCO, who helped me a lot in collection of data.

I would also like to extend my thanks to my wife K. Rama Geeta and sons, K. Yogesh Murty and K. Sai Nikhilesh Murty for their encouragement to complete this work.

Finally, I express my gratitude to Sri Devaki Nandan Tripathy for neatly typing the thesis.

K. Sasank Murty
(K. Sasank Murty)