

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my profound gratitude to my guide Professor R.C. Mahapatra, Professor & Head, Department of Personnel Management and Industrial Relations, Utkal University who inspired me to undertake the research work and has been a constant source of motivation, enabling me to carry on through difficult times. But for his able guidance, this research work would not have seen the light of the day.

I am highly grateful to Professor Bhupen Srivastava with whom I work at International Management Institute, New Delhi for his kind co-operation and valuable inputs, comments and suggestions that has helped in enriching the quality of the work.

I am deeply indebted to my husband Shri. C.S. Mohapatra for infusing in me the strength and confidence in carrying out the study. He has acted as a catalyst throughout; more particularly in reviving the work in full gear after our return from London in 1997.

I am thankful to Mr. Amar Mohapatra, General Manager (HR), NALCO, Mr A K Panigrahy, Sr. Manager (HRD), NALCO, Mr. N.Pany, Mr. N.P. Patro, Chief of HR and Mr J.K. Mishra of INDAL, Hirakud, for their active support and assistance in facilitating data collection in their respective organizations.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. N.K. Sengupta, Director General, International Management Institute, New Delhi for providing institutional support to my endeavour. Professor S. Balasubramanian, the then Registrar, International Management Institute, New Delhi provided the much needed academic and administrative support for which I am thankful.

My special thanks are due to Mrs. M. Vijaya, Secretary, IMI, New Delhi for providing secretarial support and giving final shape to this document in print. I would like to place on record my appreciation for the help and assistance provided to me from time to time by my colleagues Ms. Shilpi Mahindroo, Mr. D.K. Panigrahi and secretarial staff, Ms. Supriya Menon, Ms. Geetha Ramakrishnan and Ms. Jiji Abraham.

My sincere gratitude to my friends, Debashis, Sanghamitra, Snigdha and Ashok for their constant encouragement and emotional support.

My in-laws, parents and brothers deserve a special mention for providing moral support and a congenial atmosphere conducive to completing this study.

Last but not the least, Bonum and Monal, my lovely kids showed great deal of patience and amazing maturity in coping with my hectic engagement on account of my pre occupation with the job as also the research work.
