I am thankful to my thesis advisor Professor Alok Kumar for his able guidance and for teaching me many things, the way I liked, including string theory, superconformal and topological symmetries, how to look for relevent information and how to approach a problem. I also thank him for numerous discussions I enjoyed with him. I am grateful to him for being very patient to revive my depressed moral.

I thank our director Professor V.S. Ramamurthy for his help, understanding and encouragement.

My batchmates D.M. Gaitonde, D.P. Jatkar, S.N. Nayak, Ramesh Pai, J.J. Rajsekaran, Debanand Sa, Sarira Sahu, K. Sekar and G. Sengupta deserve appreciation for giving me a nice company. I also thank Dr. Manas Sardar, P. Singhadeo, P.A. Sreeram and all the other scholars for the same.

People in the high energy physics group Professors S.P. Misra, J. Maharana, A. Khare, Sumathi Rao, Afsar Abbas and Dr. S. Mohanty, S.P. Khastgir, S. Kar, P. Ghosh, H. Singh and K. Roy have provided very nice academic environment. I also thank Professor Ashoke Sen for many discussions and encouragement.

I am very much thankful to a large number of people and their families for contributing directly or indirectly to the completion of my work. Among them I cite Professors S.M.A.H. Rizvi, M.S.Z. Chagtaï, M. Zafar, A. Ansari and L. Maharana, Sayed Mustafa, Shri Atar Singh, Shri Kishan Lal, Shri C.K. More, Advocate Jagdish Nagar, Mr. Edmond Dias, Janab Umar A. Khan, Drs Prabhashini Brahma, B.C. Harichandan and Nitin Lad, Drs. Meharuddin Khan and Mohammad Ahmad.

Words fail to convey my gratitude to Professors T. Jayaraman, S. Mukhi, Drs. S. Govindarajan and R. Saroja and many more for their concern and moral support at a crucial time when it was really needed.

It gives me tremendous sense of well being to thank my most cordial friends Satendra and Udai Singh who have been exceptionally affectionate to me and shown earnest concern for me and my family.

Finally the love my mother, sister and brother have given me has been a great inspiration for me and has given me courage in hard times. Yasmeen deserves special thanks for her patience and understanding.
