The following questions are addressed during the course of the field study:

1. Do you think Koshal region has a separate identity? If yes how?

2. What kind of relationship exists between Koshal region and the rest of Orissa?

3. How is the relationship defined as internal colonialism or domination?

4. Do you think Oriya nationalism has not addressed the socio-economic and cultural aspirations of Koshal region?

5. Is the emergence of Koshal movement in western Orissa related to feeling of relative deprivation? If so in which areas the deprivation is felt more acutely and in which it is less?

6. What according to you is the general trajectory of Koshal movement?
7. If there is domination of coastal Orissa in Orissa politics in general and Koshal region in particular, then what according to you is the solution?
