ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I praise and thank God Almighty for his abundant grace and blessings showered up on me throughout the study.

I sincerely thank the Management of St. John’s Medical College, for giving me the opportunity to serve the institution and permitting me to do further studies.

Any research endeavour in the realm of Science or Art reflects the efforts and support of many people. Similarly, this study too received tremendous support and encouragement in innumerable ways. I wish to express my sincere appreciation and deep sense of gratitude to all those who helped me in accomplishing this task successfully.

I express my sincere gratitude to my mentor Dr. R.T.D. Ramesh Gandhi for his inspiring guidance, suggestions and constant encouragement. The invaluable time and effort spared by him for this purpose have made this study a fruitful learning experience.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. V.G Talwar, our beloved Vice Chancellor, the invaluable time efforts spared by him for this purpose. If not for his painstaking efforts this work would not have seen the light of day.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Mr. Raghavendra, who inspired and motivated me, to do the study. He helped in so many ways which cannot be repaid. I wholeheartedly thank him and pray almighty bless him and his family abundantly.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. P.V Konnur, Professor, Dept. of Library Science, Rani Chennama University, Belgaum, for helping me to begin the study, offering constructive suggestions and logistic approaches to the problem.

I immensely grateful Dr. Ramesh, Professor, Department of E.N.T for providing expert advice helping me in using various statistical techniques. I shall remain highly thankful to Dr. Ramesh for extending unselfish assistance in the completion of this thesis.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Mallinath Kumbar, Chairman, Department of Library and Information Science, Dr. Kaiser Nikham, Chairman, Dept of Library and Information Science and Dr. Shalini Urs for their kind help for this study.
I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Murlidharan, Dr. Denis Xavier, Dr. Dominic Misquith, Dr. Anthony Robert, Dr. Anita Bijoor and Dr. Nachiketh for their support and gesture to complete the study.

Today I am standing before you, because of my first teacher Mr. K.N. Kittur. I was clay, he had given me a shape to my life, motivated and guided in each step. I wish to express my sincere and deep sense of gratitude to him.

I also express my heartfelt thanks to Mr. V.N. Nagaraja Rao, for the DTP work and Kristofor and Jose Tony Das for helping me in so many ways.

I will be failing in my duties, if I do not acknowledge the sacrifices made and cooperation extended by my Wife Nimitha A.R. my daughters Nitu, Pritu and my mother Philomena I thank you very much for bearing with me during the period of this research work. I also owe a great amount of gratitude and sincere thank to Mr. Uday, Dr. Swpana, and Ms. Ranjitha, enormous help and correcting the document.

A questionnaire-based survey of this type would not be possible without support and help of the participants who volunteered their time and energy in filling in the long questionnaire. They undoubtedly deserve a special note of appreciation and thanks to all the Principals of Medical Institutions. My sincere thanks are also due to my professional colleagues (Librarians) and friends from different Institutions for taking burden of collecting the duly in forms from the respondents promptly returning them to me.
