ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of doctoral thesis necessitates more than academic rigor. It culminates in the support of many individuals in one’s life, and I would be thoughtless if I didn't stop and reflect upon those people—who have offered support and encouragement to complete my doctoral studies. The mental, emotional, physical endurance and demand of a doctoral program on an individual combined with routine demands of life can be overwhelming at times.

I express my deep gratitude to my Guide Dr.Krushna Gandhi because she is the epitome of professionalism and has been an inspiration. It was her greatness that she accepted a mediocre like me. It was her patience and guidance that has helped me to excel beyond my capacity. It was her guidance, which has helped this research work to see the light of the day.

I would also thank Dr. Ram.Sable, Reader and Dr.G.Y shitole, Postgraduate Department of commerce, SNDT university who have solved my frequent queries instantaneously. I extend my special thanks to Dr. P.K. Bandgar for his assistance, encouragement and support. He has contributed to the improvement of my work by making insightful suggestions. I express my gratefulness for his listening, questioning and encouraging positive feedback.
Special thanks, to my Prinicipal Dr. Surekha.Sawant who provided me with remarkable advice. She was genuine with comments and I cannot express how thankful I am to have such a wonderful advisor. It is only because of her exceptional tutelage that my dream has come true.

I would like to thank all the respondents as well as all the dealers, showroom sales executives and the advertising agency staff who helped me in getting the insight of the consumer goods and advertising industry business.

This dissertation is dedicated to my family for their support, patience and understanding through the whole process. I could have not done it without them. One person who worked closely with me right from the beginning is my husband Vijay. Shroff whose support has encouraged me to reach my goal and for continuously spurring me to do my best.

Lastly, I express my appreciation to my two sons Siddhanta & Vishal who have been uncomplaining during this incredible and challenging process. Hopefully one day I can inspire them to reach their dreams and goals. And above all I would like to thank God Almighty, for carrying me through.
