ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have benefited from advice and help from many sources in the course of preparing this work. I would like to express my deep gratitude and warmest thanks to my guide Dr Nita Ramaiya, for her guidance and encouragement during crucial phases of this study.

My thanks are also due to Dr Mitra Parikh for her valuable help and for allowing me to use the material in the departmental library.

My special thanks to Dr Veena Poonacha for allowing me to use the material available in the library of Research Centre for Women’s Studies, S.N.D.T University.

My thanks are also due to Medha Kotwal and Nirmala Sathe from Aalochana, Centre for Documentation and Research, Pune and the librarian and staff of Indo-American Centre for International Studies, Hyderabad, for allowing me to use the material available in their libraries.

My thanks are also due to Prof. Chandra Mohan, President of Indian Association for Canadian Studies and the corresponding officer of Shastri-Indo Canadian Institute for their timely help.
I have greatly benefited from discussions with fellow research scholars from the Canadian Studies Centre, SNDT Women’s University. The centre’s library resources and the various national level seminars organized by the Centre have provided me with various inter-disciplinary approaches, to read my texts.

Warm thanks are due to Manisha, Sikha Dutta and Rajni Rajan for their timely help.

My special thanks to Dinesh Pawar and Asha Shetty for their help in providing technical assistance.

Lastly my warmest thanks to all my family members and especially my father, who has been a constant source of inspiration throughout this long journey.
