ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude and deep regards to my guide(s), Prof. R.P Tiwari, Department of Geology, Mizoram University and Prof. S.J. Sangode, Department of Geology, University of Pune for their exemplary guidance, monitoring and constant encouragement throughout the course of this thesis. The blessing, help and guidance given by them from time to time shall carry me a long way in the journey of life on which I am about to embark.

I also take this opportunity to express a deep sense of gratitude to my colleague Dr. J. Malsawma, for his cordial support, valuable information and guidance, which helped me in completing this task through various stages like field work, sampling as well as interpretation. I am truly indebted to Mr. A.G Badekar, Mr. C. Remruatfela and Mr. C. Lalchhanhima for their co-operation and support in various ways. A journey is easier when you travel together. Also I extend my thankfulness to the Department of Science and Technology (DST) New Delhi for providing funds for setting up of Palaeomagnetic Laboratory in Mizoram University as a National facility which enabled me to carry out experiments leading to this study.

I am extremely thankful to all my respected teachers: Prof Shiva Kumar, Head of Department, Dr. Victor Zochhuana Ralte, Associate Professor, and Dr. K. S. Rao and Dr. (Ms) Kavita Devi, Assistant Professors for their invaluable suggestions and kind help that I received from them during this study.

I also take this opportunity again to sincerely acknowledge my cordial colleagues and fellow researchers Dr C. Lalmuankimi, Miss Lalchawimawii, Mr. K. Lalduhawma. Dr Jimmy Lalunmawia. Mr. Malsawmtluanga, Mr. C. Zoramthara, Mr. C. Malsawmdawngliana, Mr. Lalramdina, Mr. Laldinpuia, Mr. Benjamin L Chhangte,
Mr. C. Lalsawta and Mr. Chimnoy Rajkonwar of Mizoram University; and, Mr. Swapnil S. Gudadhe, Mr. Yogesh R. Kulkarni and Mr. Priyeshu Srivastava of University of Pune for providing congenial atmosphere in the Department in Mizoram University and University of Pune.

I would also like to thanks warmly my friend Mr. John Paul Lalruatfela for helping me to learn several softwares which are required to process data for this thesis; My uncle Mr. Lalthmilingiana, and my friends Mr. Stephen Lalnlaansanga Auhmun and Mr. Lalrinawma for providing necessary logistics for carrying out the field work; and Mr. C. Tlangthanmawia and Mr. Zohmingliana for helping me during the field work and sample preparation.

Last, but not least, I would like to dedicate this thesis to my father Mr. Philip Laithanga, mother Mrs. Basilia Lalchawimawii, Brother Peter Lalremruata. And to my dearest wife Liza Zothanpari(Zo-i) and children Fefe-a and Emi, for their love, patience, and understanding—as they allowed me to concentrate on my work during the entire course of this study.

Above all I Thank God for the wisdom and perseverance that he bestowed upon me during this research, and indeed, throughout my life: "I can do everything through him who gives me strength." (Philippians 4:13).
