It is my proud privilege and great opportunity to work under such inspiring guidance, persistent encouragement and constructive criticism of Dr. Neelima Kunwar, (D.Sc.) Assoc. Professor and Head, Department of Extension Education and Communication Management (ECM), College of Home Science, C.S.A.U.A.T., Kanpur and chairman of my Advisory Committee. I am extremely indebted to her for being meticulous throughout the investigation and preparation of this manuscript. I sought keen interest, valuable suggestion, and constant inspiration of my co-guide Dr. Meenakshi Singh, Lecturer 'HDFS', Institute of H.Sc., Bundelkhand Univ., Jhansi. I Am highly obliged and grateful for their help and never forget that they provided every possible facility at each stage of my investigation.

I also express my deep dense of gratitude to Mr. Arun Kumar Srivastava, Asst. Statistician, Department of Crop Physiology, C.S.A.U.A.T., Kanpur for rendering his help in statistical analyses of the research data.

Words are very few to express the real concern, love, encouragement and inspiration that my Papaji Dr. Manmohan Singh and Mummyji Smt. Shanti Singh showered on me without which I could not have done anything. My whole family members my bhaiya- bhabhi Mr. Ashok Singh- Smt. Suman Singh and Mr. Santosh Singh- Smt. Rashmi Singh, jijaji- didi Mr. Ajai Singh- Mrs. Anju Singh, nephew Master Ankit and both pretty niece Shagun & Gungun and my in-laws (Shri Pooran Singh, Smt. Jivanti Singh, Ms. Deepa and Mr. Chandan Singh) have always boosted up my morale and encouraged me much to carry out the work in adverse condition too.

I will fail in my duty if I don't mention and acknowledge the intimate friendship, co-operation, encouragement, valuable suggestions and word fails also to express my profound, special thanks to Mr. Avinash Verma for his kind help in my study.

By saying merely thanks, I do not want to reduce the love, affection, inspiration and moral support of my husband and best friend Dr. Kundan Singh whose untiring help gave me every time a ray of hope in the darkness of problem, animated to overcome and face them with smile. and I would really miss, if I don't express my cordial thanks to someone who is the part of my life, that's my loving, naughty son Saaransh, without the love, inspiration and affection of both this dream would not been materialized.

My special thanks for those who knowingly or unknowingly helped me through their criticism and suggestions time to time which inspired me to do my best all the times.

I am very thankful to Mr. A.K.S. Sengar, office Secretary, office of the Registrar, C.S.A.U.A.T., Kanpur for their help during the preparation of this manuscript.

Before to pen down, I confess that I don't know how to acknowledge the help and co-operation of my guide, Advisory committee members, family members, friends but above feelings are followed from the origin of my heart in the shape of words and as gospel truth.
