I have been indebted in the preparation of this thesis to my supervisor, Dr R. K. Thapa, whose patience and kindness, as well as his academic experience, has been invaluable to me. With his enthusiasm, his inspiration, and his great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, he helped to make the subject fun for me. Throughout my thesis-writing period, he provided encouragement, sound advice, good teaching, good company, and lots of good ideas. I would have been lost without him. His truly scientist intuition has made him as a constant oasis of ideas and passions in science, which exceptionally inspire and enrich my growth as a student, a researcher and a scientist want to be. I am indebted to him more than he knows.

I gratefully acknowledge a research fellowship from DAE (BRNS), Mumbai. I thank all the teaching faculty of the Department of Physics, Mizoram University, Aizawl for their encouragement during the course of this Ph. D. work. My heartfelt thanks go especially to Dr. R. C. Tiwari, Dr. Zaithanzauva Pachuau, Dr. V. Madhurima, Dr. Hranghmingthanga, Dr. Shivraj Gurung, Dr. P. K. Patra, Dr. B. I. Sharma and Dr. N. Kar for giving useful suggestions. Thanks are to all the non-teaching staff members of Department of Physics, Mizoram University, Aizawl for their co-operation.

I thank Dr. M. P. Ghimire, Research scholar, Department of Physics, Mizoram University for his continuous support and many useful suggestions while this work was in progress. I also wish to thank my colleagues Rosangliana, Lalmuanpuia, Jameson Maibam, Dibya Prakash Rai and Amit Shankar for the insightful discussion, offering valuable advices during the whole period of the study. I also thank Debarun Dhar Purkayastha, Jonathan Lalnunsiama and Ricky Lalhmangaihzuala for all the support and fruitful discussions.

I acknowledge gratefully the warm and motherly hospitality extended by Mrs. Kamala Thapa. She has been a guide and source of inspiration always and above all provided a homely atmosphere during the course of this work.

My family members deserve special mention for their inseparable support and prayers. My Grand parents, R. P. Joshi and Uma Devi (L), in the first place are the person who put the fundament my learning character, showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child. My parents Sujit Kumar (L) and Maya Devi, my uncle and aunty Raj Kumar Joshi and Shanti Joshi are the one who sincerely raised me with their caring and gentle love. Sarika, Sapna, Rajni and Sanjeevni, thanks for being supportive and caring siblings. The birth of my nephews Samriddhi, Smriti and Sanskar have been the most amazing thing to me in the past four years. A look at their face can wash away all my troubles and pressure immediately. My brother in law Mr. Basan Sharma and his family members have been constantly encouraging me for an early completion of my thesis.

I thank each and every family members of Mr. Rabiram Chettri, Mr. Ramakanta Joshi, Mr. Shyam Kumar, Mr. D. B. Chettri, Mr. Debraj Boral Chhetri, Mr. C. B. Chhetri, Mr. K. B. Chhetri, Mr. Shyamlal Jaishi, Mr. Kesor Kumar, Mr. Purna Prasad Joshi and Mr. Sena Jaishi of for their constant love and support. Words fail me to express my appreciation to my friends and team mates of Gorkha Cricket Club, Aizawl for their love and persistent support which has taken the load off my shoulder.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of this thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention personally one by one. I am ever grateful to God, the merciful and the passionate, for providing me the opportunity to step in the excellent world of science.
