ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I respectfully express my deep gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Jagadish K. Patnaik, Dean, School of Social Sciences, Mizoram University for his patience and untiring efforts, encouraging guidance and supervision, sparing his valuable time for the completion of the task. This piece of work being the first of its kind for me is full of doubts and confusions that always have a complete solution in him.

The work being a new exploration heavily depends upon pragmatic approaches for which I am greatly indebted to many people who enthusiastically share their knowledge and experience, provide me necessary materials, records, notifications and documents which are required for this piece of work. For the completion of the work I have consulted various scholastic works and research publications to whose authors I am very much grateful.

I sincerely thank my husband K.Lalthazuala, sons Vanrohluar and Malsawmkima, my parents Thanghnuna and Biakveli for their cooperation, constant support in various ways, encouragement and the liberty I obtained from them in pursuing my ambition. This work would have been a painstaking task for me without their moral support.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratefulness to Dr.RK.Satapathy, Reader, Department of Political Science, North Eastern Hill University. It is during his short span of service in the Department of Political Science, Mizoram University that my ambition for doctoral research finds its headway.
