

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I consider it my proud privilege and pious duty to acknowledge my gratitude to Professor Ranbir Sharma, Head, Department of Political Science, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, for having initiated me into this area of research. It was very kind of him to provide constant inspiration to me to work on this theme.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my thanks to my supervisor and guide, Dr. Gopal Singh, Assistant Professor, Political Science Department, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, for having spared his valuable time for my work. I am really grateful to him for his constant and inspiring guidance and supervision of the entire work. But for him, this study could have not materialised.

I am also thankful to librarians of various libraries who were kind enough to provide me the facilities for consulting books, journals, dissertations etc. Special mention must be made of the librarians of Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, Sapru House, New Delhi and National Institute of Community Development, Hyderabad.

I am also thankful to all my friends and colleagues who extended their co-operation and support in the completion of this work. I cannot help making special mention of my beloved Didi, Mrs. Rajinder Kaur, Lecturer in Political Science, Arya Girls College, Shahabad Markanda (Haryana) and Mr. Diwan Chand Miglani, Education Department, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra.

Above all, I am grateful to my parents who, very affectionately and ungrudgingly, provided the much needed financial assistance for the completion of my research work. My thanks are also due to my wife, Sudesh, and children who helped me in all possible ways for bringing my research work to a fruitful conclusion.

I cannot forget to record my thanks and gratefulness to all the respondents, whom I interviewed, for their co-operation, hospitality and friendliness. Without their co-operation this study would have remained incomplete.

I do not know how to thank the officials and employees of the Directorate of Panchayats, Government of Haryana for providing me copies of documents, Acts, booklets etc., particularly the unpublished data regarding the 1983 panchayat elections.

(SHAMSHER SINGH)
