

Acknowledgements

In the process of completing the thesis, it has become quite clear to me that a researcher cannot complete a Ph.D without any supervision and proper discussions. Although, the list of individuals, I want to thank extends beyond the limits of this format, I would like to thank the following persons for their dedication, and support. They all have my sincere gratitude.

I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. D.D Sharma, Associate Professor & Head Department of Geography Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, H.P, India. His wide knowledge, logical way of thinking, understanding, encouragement and personal guidance provided a good basis for the present thesis. His ability to probe beneath the text is a true gift, and insights have strengthened this study significantly. I will always be thankful for his wisdom, knowledge, and deep concern. His very prompt and satisfying responses to my questions motivated me immensely, especially during my not-so-good times. It has been an honour to work with him, honestly. I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to Professor H. N Mishra Professor Department of Geography Allahabad University Uttar Pradesh, for his constructive comments, and for his support throughout this work.

I warmly thank Dr. Rakesh Sharma for his valuable advice and friendly help. His extensive discussions and constructive comments deserve special thanks. I am thankful to the staff of department of geography for availing themselves to me. I wish to thank Mr. Rama Nand assistant in Himachal Pradesh University library and Mr. Susheel Kumar for their help and support. I gratefully thank my extended family for their understanding and support during all these years. A penultimate thanks goes to my mother. Without her motivation, it would have been impossible for me to finish this work. She deserves far more credit than I can ever give her. Special thanks to my wife Vanita, and daughter Jyotsana.

Their patience, love and encouragement have upheld me, particularly in those days when I spent most of the time with my computer. At last, I want to thank Krishan and Manish for their contribution during field survey and, people of Shimla town for giving their precious time during primary data collection and God, who continues to look after me despite my flaws.
