Acknowledgements

I am deeply indebted to my supervisor, Dr. M.S. Ahluwalia for his keen interest, guidance and constant encouragement which he rendered throughout the preparation of this thesis and without which the present work may not have reached its final stage.

It is my proud privilege to thank Dr. Abha Mallhotra, Chairman and other staff members of the Department of History, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for their inspiration, encouragement and constant cooperation.

I would also like to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to the staff of the following institutions for their help and consideration: the National Archives of India, New Delhi; the Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, New Delhi; the States Archives of Punjab, Patiala; the Punjab University Library, Chandigarh; the Himachal Pradesh University Library, Shimla; the State Archives of Himachal Pradesh, Shimla; the Himachal Pradesh Secretariat Library, Shimla; the Shimla Municipal Corporation and the Shimla Sadar Thana. Their ready help was of great advantage.

I express my profound gratitude and thanks to Kanwar Yogendra, Dr. K.N. Awasthi and Dr. Renu Thakur for their motivation and generous help despite their busy schedule. I would also like to thank my friends namely Jaideep Negi, Ramesh Thakur, Anil Verma, Dr. Banshi Ram Sharma, who have always been generous with their time and helpful comments wherever and whenever sought.
My special thanks are also due to my wife, Punam Chauhan and little daughter, Sehaj who while ignoring my neglect of domestic responsibilities sustained me with encouragement, constant love and affection.

I am also indebted to my parents and brother, who have always guided me in every sphere of my academic career. A grateful thanks to Mrs. Kiran Thakur for typing this thesis with all love, care and with a keen interest and sympathy.
