CONTENTS

Introduction
1 - 32

Chapter One: Political Activism and Issues of Native Identity
33 - 108

1. Education is Our Right: The Politics of Repression and Exclusion
2. Toronto at Dreamer's Rock: Native Identity Across Time
3. alterNatives: Political Correctness, Authenticity and Appropriation
4. In a World Created by a Drunken God: Existential Dilemmas and Native Identity

Chapter Two: The “Scoop Up” and the Crisis of Native Identity
109 - 167

1. Someday: A Tragic 'Reunion'
2. Only Drunks and Children Tell the Truth: The Self at Crossroads
3. 400 Kilometres: The Culmination of the Quest for Identity

Chapter Three: Celebrating Native Humour: Re-imaging Nativeness in The ‘Blues’ Quartet
169 - 254

1. The Bootlegger Blues: The Celebration of Native Humour
2. The Baby Blues: Trickster Spirit at Pow wow
4. The Berlin Blues: Neo-colonial Cultural Tourism / Appropriation

Conclusion
255-264

Bibliography
265-281