ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Before introducing the pages of this Thesis, I feel it my sincere duty to thank those who not only inspired me in the progress of my work, but also helped and cooperated with me throughout this study.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. J.L. Verma, Lecturer, Bundelkhand College, Jhansi, under whose kind and able guidance I have been able to complete this research work. He not only inspired me to work on the present subject but also gave me sufficient time for this work at my request. I heartily acknowledge his able guidance and supervision in this regard.

I really am thankful to the Commandant I.M.A. Dehradun for the ungrudging help extended to me by granting me permission to gather information regarding I.M.A. Trainees. I shall ever remain indebted to him.

I sincerely thank Mr. Yudhvir Singh, Barrister, Roorkee and Incharge Hostels, Engineering University, Roorkee for their immeasurable help and support.

I am highly obliged to Dr. A.K. Singh of Medical College, Jhansi for his valuable time and help extended to me.
I must also express my deepest gratitude to my husband and son whose unflinching help and encouragement made this study possible and who were a constant source of inspiration throughout the duration of this project.

I express my thanks to M/s. Prop., J.P. Computers for the neat and clean printing of this thesis in desired time limit and I would also like to thank all those friends and relatives who have one way or the other helped me in the compilation of facts on the subject which will help to clear the minds of lot of parents about their children’s education in various schools.

In the end, I bow my head to the supreme power GOD who enlightened my path so that I could find my way and complete this study.
