ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Though, this thesis is submitted individually it must be admitted that many persons have contributed in their own way in completing it. So the author owes all of them a deep sense of gratitude.

Really, I have no words to thank Dr. S.N. Deshpande, Professor of Behavioural Sciences, MIDA, Pune, who motivated and always encouraged me for completing the research work. He helped me a lot, though he had a very busy schedule. I remain grateful to him forever.

Professor Shri Lodhi, Department of Psychology, University of Poona, extended his co-operation in explaining the statistical analysis to me. I am also thankful to him.

I was able to complete my research work under the guidance of Dr. R. R. Borude, Professor-in-charge, Post-Graduate Department of Psychology, Marathwada University, Aurangabad. As he provided me all the facilities and sources to obtain necessary information, I was able to complete my task at the earliest. I owe my deep sense of gratitude to him.

Principals and Heads of the Department of Psychology of Abasaheb Garware College, Fergusson College and Modern College, Pune, permitted me to collect the data in their institutions. I give my heartfelt thanks to them and also to Dyan-Probodhini, Pune for allowing me to use Intelligence test which is adapted in Marathi by them.
Jayakar Library, Pune permitted me to read and collect the needful references time to time. Hence, I thank the Librarian and staff of Jayakar Library, Pune.

Shri Pangarkar assisted me by drawing the graphs and diagrams, Mrs. R.C. Joshi and Shri S.E. Surve did the typing very neatly. My thanks to both of them.

V. D. RAMDASI