It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to those who gave their help and co-operation throughout the period of my study. No words seem adequate to thank my teacher Dr. Om P. Gautam who met with all my requirements for discussions and invaluable advice with wholehearted involvements and abiding interest. His deep knowledge of the politics of the period enlightened me and provided intellectual and stimulating atmosphere to carry on this work. He has been very kind and considerate to give all his time and attention whenever I needed, especially the pains he took to go through the manuscript throughout its various stages.

I am thankful to Prof. S. R. Mehrotra, Chairman of the Department of History for his valuable guidance and providing all facilities whenever I approached him. Dr. A. R. Khan had encouraged me immensely by recommending and obtaining financial assistance from ICHR for my research work.

Thanks are due to the staff of the different libraries where I carried on my work namely, Nehru Memorial Museum & Library, ACHI, JNU, Sapru House Library, AICC Library, CPI Central Office Library at Delhi, Panjab University Library, The Tribune Office (Library) and Dwarka Das Library at Chandigarh helped me to consult the required material. Facilities provided by Himachal Pradesh University Library, Indian Institute of Advanced Study and Municipal Library at Shimla deserve my thanks.
I must also thank ICHR, New Delhi and H. P. University for the financial assistance provided.

My deep sense of gratitude to my parents especially my father late Shri D. N. Gandhi whose keen desire and dreams to see the completion of the work could not see the light of the day. With his immense knowledge of the developments of pre-independence days it was much easier for me to have an insight into that period. His collection of articles and newspaper cuttings was very helpful for reference at times. Special thanks go to my brother Ashok and my sister Nimmi who stood by me through thick and thin. My sisters and brothers-in-law were a tremendous source of inspiration and help.

Last but not the least my thanks to Shri Nand Lal Verma who took care and pains to type this thesis at such a short notice and shared my all problems.
