PREFACE

It is my great privilege to express my sense of deepest gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. S.S. Chauhan, Associate Professor, Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, for the constant motivation and encouragement given by him to accomplish the present work. Without his scholarly guidance and active co-operation, it would have been difficult for me to complete this work.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not feel indebted to Dr. Lokesh Koul, Head and Dean, Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, for his invaluable guidance and precious suggestions for the completion of this study.

I also express my gratitude to Dr. (Miss) Balbir Kaur and Dr. K.K. Gosain, Assistant Professors in Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for their scholarly suggestions at the stage of analysis and interpretation of the data. I am really thankful to all other teachers, Dr. Kulvir Singh, Sh. O.P. Sharma and research scholars of Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, for the help they rendered me from time to time. I am also thankful to my friends for the help they extended at different stages of this work.
Thanks are due to the Principals, Headmasters, Headmistresses and teachers of various schools of Himachal Pradesh for their active co-operation and to respondents, who responded to perennial tests and co-operation extended in conducting the study.

I am thankful to the authors and editors of books, journals, research papers and magazines, whose observations have been helpful to me in conducting the present study.

Last, but not least, I am also thankful to Sh. B.S. Chandel and Sh. B.R. Chandel who took the great trouble of typing the present thesis very neatly and in time.

Chapter scheme of the thesis in briefs given below:

First chapter is introductory, it deals with meaning of the word habit, different explanations of habit, importance and disadvantages of habits. The second chapter is devoted to the importance of the present study, statement of the problem, objectives, hypotheses and delimitation of the problem. The next chapter deals with the survey of the related literature, which contains studies conducted abroad, and in India. Chapter fourth includes sample, tools used for data collection and experimental designs applied for analysis of data. Chapter fifth deals with analysis and interpretation of data. Chapter sixth is devoted to conclusions drawn, suggestions for parents and teachers and suggestions for further study. The last section is the summary of the study.
