ACKNOWLEDGMENT

It gives me immense pleasure to express my indebtedness and deep sense of gratitude to my respected Research Supervisor, Dr. Keshav Sharma, Assistant Professor in Education, Directorate of Correspondence Courses, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla-171005 under whose benevolent guidance and scholarly supervision the present study was undertaken and completed. Inspite of his so many engagements, his keen interest in my work, sympathetic attitude and continued encouragement at every stage facilitated this work and made it possible for me to complete it.

My heart felt thanks are due to Dr. Harish Sharma, Reader in Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for guiding me at different stages of the research work in its execution inspite of his busy schedule.

The investigator is equally obliged to Dr. (Mrs) Rajinder Kaur, Dr. (Miss) Subhashani Mahajan and Dr. (Miss) Balbir Kaur for their help.

I am also grateful to Dr. K.P. Pandey, Director, Directorate of Correspondence Courses, Himachal Pradesh University, Dr. Lokesh Koul, Dean, Education Faculty and Dr. S.S. Chauhan, Head, Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University for their inspiration.

I am also thankful to Mr. Narinder Gaur for his assistance in data collection and Dr. Kulwinder Singh who has been generous in extending his cooperation.
I owe special thanks for my husband for his kind cooperation, encouragement and inspiration who has been instrumental in completing the research work.

I am also obliged to the heads, teachers and students of various faculties of Himachal Pradesh University in which a scale of academic alienation was developed and administered.

I am also extremely grateful to Mr. D.S. Thakur for his valuable guidance and assistance in printing out this thesis with all exactitude and with keen interest and sympathy.

I am also thankful to Mr. Rajesh Chauhan and Mr. Anubhav Chauhan for their help in item selection and Mr. Rajesh Bhutt for doing comparison work.

November 6, 1987.

Mrs. (Radha Rani)