ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

While submitting this research work, it gives me great pleasure to express my indebtedness and profound sense of gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Professor Lokesh Koul, Dean of Studies and Dean Faculty of Education, H.P. University, Shimla for his invaluable guidance and direction provided in the prosecution of the study inspite of his extremely busy schedule of academic and administrative engagements in the university.

I express my gratitude to all the members, Faculty of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for their academic support and advice provided to me from time to time during the conduct of this study.

I owe a debt of gratitude to Prof. A.K. Mishra, Head, Department of Vocationalisation of Education, NCERT, New Delhi and Prof. J.N. Joshi, Dean, Faculty of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their expert counselling and fruitful suggestions which helped me in formulating my ideas embodied in this study.

I am equally grateful to Mr. G.P. Dinkar, Deputy Director and other officials of Vocational Wing, Directorate of Education, Government of Himachal Pradesh, Shimla for their co-operation and support in data collection. Thanks are also due to principals, teachers and students of government senior secondary schools of Himachal Pradesh where the data for the present study were collected. My thanks are also due to the officials of various agencies and members of the community of the state for extending their help in obtaining the information pertaining to the study.
I would like to place on record my sense of gratefulness to the University Grants Commission for providing the financial assistance to carry out the research work under the D.S.A. scheme. All the librarians of the NCERT, TTTI, H.P. University Libraries and my friends deserve a word of appreciation for rendering their co-operation in the accomplishment of the work.

I fail to find words to thank adequately Mrs. Kalpana and Miss Rosy without whose perseverance, encouragement and sacrifice the work would not have been completed.

Last, but not least I must also thank Mr. Nitya Nand Sharma for typing the manuscript with efficiency and meticulousness.
