ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is the proud privilege of the investigator to express her deep sense of gratitude and obligation to Dr. (Mrs.) J.K. Chhatwal, Professor (Retd.), Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, SHIMLA, who was her supervisor, under whose benevolent guidance and scholarly supervision the present study was undertaken and completed.

The Investigator is highly obliged to the Tribal Department, Government of India for awarding her a Research Fellowship for taking up this work and also thankful to the Tribal Development Department, Government of Himachal Pradesh.

The Investigator owes her sincere thanks to Professor, Lokesh Kaul, Dean, Faculty of Education and Chairman, Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for his guidance and critical suggestions.

Dr. Prem Lal Gupta (Lecturer), Department of Education, Correspondence Courses, deserves special mention for the guidance and help he gave at different stages of the study.

The Investigator is deeply grateful to Dr. Balbir Kaur (Professor), Dr. Kulwinder (Lecturer), Dr. Ramesh (Lecturer) and Dr. Y.K. Sharma (Lecturer), Department of Education for their help and encouragement for conducting the study.

The Investigator also owes her thanks to the Librarians of Himachal Pradesh University, Tribal Department Library and The office of the Directorate of Education in Shimla.

The Investigator is highly obliged to all the Heads,
The Principals and The Teachers of various schools and community people of Lahaul-Spiti District, who rendered their willing co-operation for conducting the study.

The Researcher is deeply thankful to her friends and research scholars who have motivated her and accelerated the pace of work.

The Investigator is deeply indebted to her husband and her family members for their constant help encouragement and co-operation in every step of her study.

The researcher owes a deep sense of gratitude to Miss. Alka for putting in her best in typing this thesis.

(SAROJINI KUMARI)