ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I thank God for giving me all the grace, courage, energy and patience to undertake my research work successfully.

I express my sincere thanks and gratitude to my research guide Prof. (Dr). Pratima P. Kamat, Head, Department of History, Goa University for her constant support, concern, dedication and keen interest during the course of my research work. She willingly spared long hours of her precious time with useful discussions and new ideas. I am indeed proud of having the privilege to be her student, her patience, encouragement, understanding and systematic nature has helped me a lot without which I would have not succeeded and will be treasured forever. Thank you is too small a word to value your efforts for me.

I would like to extend special thanks to the Vice Chancellor, Registrar, Dean of Social Sciences and the administrative staff of Goa University for extending all necessary facilities and help during the period of my research. Special thanks to, Dr Mahmai Kamat for his valuable guidance, constant encouragement and instant help at all times. Thank you so much Sir!!

I owe my special thanks to Indian Council of Social Science Research Institute W.R.C. Mumbai for the study grant which helped me in visiting libraries in Mumbai to collect material for my research.

A special word of thanks and appreciation to Mr. Mahabal Bhat, St. Xavier’s H.S.S. Mapusa, for helping me in translating the inscriptions. I thank the librarian of the National Institute of Oceanography and Marine Archaeology faculty in particular Dr Nigam, Dr. Antonio Mascarenhas, Dr Untawale, WWF, Sundaresh and Gaur. A word of appreciation to Dr. A.G. Desai, Dr. Anthony Viegas for their constant help in mapping and geology.

I thank the librarian and staff of Mumbai University, Asiatic Society, Dharwad University, Pune University, Deccan College and N.D.A. Pune
I am especially thankful to Dr Aubrey Mascarenhas for his suggestions, encouragement, help and constant wishes during my visit at the Heras Institute, Mumbai and after. I also extend my sincere thanks to the curator of the Heras Institute Museum and the Librarian for the efficient service provided to me during my visit at Mumbai.

I extend my heartiest thanks to the Director, Curator and Librarian of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangralaya for providing me with all facilities such as photographs and research material.

My special thanks to Mrs D’Souza, Librarian, of Xavier’s Centre of Historical Research, Porvorim, Librarian and staff of Central Library, Panjim, Dr. Jayanti Naik and staff of Konkani Academy, Panjim for extending all possible help for literature survey.

I gratefully acknowledge the silent assistance and co-operation extended to me by the staff of the Goa University library in particular to Mrs Mitragotri. Lectures of the Department of History, Goa University, Dr. Bhat, Dr. Nagendra, Venugopala Nair and office staff, Anna, Borkar and Yoganand. I acknowledge the services provided to me by the Goa State Museum and A.S.I Museum, Old Goa and Panjim.

I am thankful to Dr. Seema Rishbud for accompanying me to Mumbai during the course of my visit to Mumbai. My special thanks to Prabhakar Majik and Sandeep Majik for giving their time in valuable discussions. I am sincerely thankful to Ravi Joshi and his family and Waggar from Dharwad for their help during my visit to Dharwad. Special thanks to Mr. Dharesh, Goa University, for his concern during periods of ups and downs.

I am thankful to the Director, Mr. Godinho and Department of Town and Country Planning, Panjim specially Mr Sawant for providing me with necessary facilities and requirements.
My special thanks to the Curator, Mohan Narayan, Maritime History Society for extending his precious time and library facilities during my visit to Mumbai.

I thank Fr. Cosme Costa for his constant help in providing information on the site under study. I am grateful to Ramkrishna Zuvarkar, Goa Velha and Yamini, Bati for accompanying me for site survey.

My sincere gratitude to Mr. Nicolau Antao for accompanying me for site survey and provided me with valuable inputs for the research on Chandor. A word of appreciation to Marso Lobo, President of Goa Ramponkar, Calangute. My special thanks to Fr. Moreno De Souza, Old Goa for giving his precious time in discussion on Ella.

I sincerely thank the Karnataka Research Institute librarian and Curator for permitting me to avail of their research facilities.

My heartiest thanks to the Manager, Fr Herculano Corriea, Principal, Mr. Mervyn D'Souza, Vice-Principal, Mr. Brian Duarte and colleagues of the of St. for their constant support during the period of my research. I am grateful to the Principal, Dr. B.A. Gomes and Staff in particular Mr. Oscar Norohna and Dr. Xavier Martins for their support and encouragement during the period of my research. A special word of thanks to Mr Promod Kerkar, librarian of Government College, Pernem and Bala, Librarian of St. Xavier's H.S.S, Mapusa.

Finally, I do not have adequate words to express what I owe to my parents, sisters and brothers for innumerable acts of patience, advice, moral support, understanding and untiring help.

!!!!!!!!!!!A Big Thank You!!!!!!!!!! May God Bless You Always!!!!!!!